NEW BEGINNINGS : ADVENTUREWOMEN ARE ON THE MOVE!

At AdventureWomen, we're all about new beginnings. New dreams. New destinations. New challenges. New friendships.

This month we're featuring some new opportunities which give each of us reasons to remain positive and upbeat as we charge into 2017. Unique experiences which are aspirational and inspirational. Journeys which stretch our hearts and our minds.

In Tanzania, you forge new connections with local Maasai women. On Baffin Island, you learn about how climate change is one reason to make travel one of your most important New Year's resolutions. You expand your mind with some new fun facts about Peru we bet you don't already know. And you find out how women around the world in Iceland, Peru and India celebrate the new year.

And stay tuned! Just around the corner, we're launching a new look at AdventureWomen, freshening things up and adding even more spice to our AdventureWomen journeys.
