Packing Considerations: The weather in Scotland is highly variable. June, July, and August are normally the warmest months, with average maximum temperatures ranging from approximately 59°-63 °F. Scotland's high latitude means that you will enjoy lovely long summer days and often an extended twilight.

You should dress in casual, outdoor clothing that is easily layered. Waterproof rain gear is essential for this trip. It can be cool in the evenings, so be sure to bring a jacket or sweater.

Clothing and Gear:

- Duffel bag or small suitcase
- Daypack (should be large enough to carry spare layers, a packed lunch, and water)
- Rain cover for daypack
- 1 pair telescopic hiking poles (optional)
- Medium-weight, waterproof hiking boots (make sure they are broken in!)
- Comfortable walking shoes
- 3-4 pairs hiking socks
- 2-3 short sleeve shirts (quick dry recommended)
- 2-3 long sleeve shirts (quick dry recommended)
- 1 medium weight fleece sweater/jacket
- 1-2 pairs of pants
- 1-2 pairs of shorts
- 1-2 sets of nicer clothes for dinner
- Gore-Tex/waterproof jacket
- Gore-Tex/waterproof pants
- Hat for sun protection
- 5-7 pairs underwear
- 2-4 sports bras
- Sleepwear
- 3-4 gallon size Ziploc bags (for dirty boots/clothes)

AdventureWomen Essentials:

- Travel documents (passport, airline tickets, money)
- 2-3 spare passport photos (in case of lost passport)
- Write down/print out travel insurance number
- Locks for your suitcase/duffel bag
- Travel alarm clock with spare batteries
- Headlamp or small flashlight with spare batteries
- Binoculars (8x40/42 models are excellent choices; center focus models are easiest)
- Digital camera, memory cards, battery charger
- Power adapters
- Sunglasses, case, and strap
- Spare glasses, contact lenses, cleaner, saline, etc.
- Money belt or neck pouch
- Your AdventureWomen insulated bottle (good for hot or cold drinks!)
- Sunscreen and lip balm with SPF
- Mosquito repellent
- Hand wipes/hand sanitizer
- Toothbrush/toothpaste

Health Insurance

You must have your own health insurance to participate in an AdventureWomen trip.

Adventure Travel Today

At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!

In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a

DAY 2

Monday
6/18/18

Pitlochry

The Highland Perthshire is a walker's paradise. With its excellent network of well-marked routes, ranging from gentle strolls to challenging hikes, and surrounded by dramatic scenery, there is something for everyone to enjoy.

Walk from Dunkeld through Birnam Wood

Start your walk from the town of Dunkeld and walk through Birnam Wood. This area was made famous by Shakespeare, who referenced Birnam Wood in Macbeth. Highland Perthshire has some of the most remarkable trees, woodlands, and country gardens in Europe.

Lunch

Enjoy lunch on your own in Dunkeld.

Visit a Distillery

Take a distillery tour and see how uisge beatha is made from golden malted barley, water, and yeast, distilled in traditional copper pot stills, and matured in oak casks.

Dinner

Enjoy dinner as a group in Pitlochry.

DAY 3

Tuesday
6/19/18

Pitlochry

Loch Tay is a magnificent dark stretch of water, 15 miles long and around 500 feet deep. It is the largest loch in Perthshire and one of the deepest in Scotland. During the Iron Age, people lived on defensible, man-made islands on the loch, called crannogs. More than 20 of these crannogs have been identified in the loch.

Walking and Foraging

Transfer to Loch Tay for a morning of walking and learning to forage for food. Create a picnic lunch based around the food you find! (In the event of rain, you will have lunch in a café.)

Visit a Crannog

Visit an ancient loch dwelling - a crannog - and learn how prehistoric people lived in the area.

Dinner

Enjoy dinner on your own this evening.

DAY 4

Wednesday
6/20/18

Pitlochry to Argyll

Combining stunning scenery and island paradises, Argyll is the ideal area to escape amid awe-inspiring landscapes. The rugged vistas on the mainland are guaranteed to take your breath away. Argyll is of ancient origin, and corresponds to most of the ancient kingdom of Dál Riata. Argyll was also a medieval bishopric with its cathedral at Lismore, as well as an early modern earldom and dukedom, the Dukedom of Argyll.

Today's Walk Walk today from Tyndrum to the Bridge of Orchy. Walk along the old military road constructed by General Wade in order to suppress the rebellious Highlanders.

Picnic Lunch Enjoy a picnic lunch along the way.

Relax at Your Hotel Arrive at your hotel this afternoon and relax after a day of walking. Enjoy dinner on your own.

DAY 5

Thursday
6/21/18

Argyll to Arisaig

The West Highland Way is a 96-mile long distance footpath running from Milngavie to Fort William in the Scottish Highlands. The trail was opened in 1980, and uses many ancient roads passing through spectacular Scottish landscapes.

Walk on the West Highland Way

Walk directly from the hotel on the West Highland Way to Inverarnan. Head for the edge of the Great Moore of Rannoch, one of the last remaining wildernesses in Europe.

Explore Fort William

Explore Fort William on your own. It is in the center of the Highlands, and has magnificent views of Ben Nevis and the surrounding mountains. Enjoy lunch on your own.

Afternoon Walk at Arisaig

Walk to the pretty village of Arisaig. Centered on the sheltered shore of Loch nan Ceall on the west coast, Arisaig is a picturesque village boasting superb scenery.

Dinner

Enjoy dinner as a group.

DAY 6

Friday
6/22/18

Arisaig

Arisaig is a lovely collection of largely white-painted buildings scattered between the harbour and the line of the road to Morar. The town is situated on an inlet in the Morar peninsula at the western end of the legendary Road to Isles. The landscape is characterised by a rocky coast, blue seas, and particularly white sand which all make the village a good base for exploring the incredibly scenic surrounding countryside. The views out to the islands of Rum and Eigg can be breathtaking, especially at sunset.

Loch Morar Walk along the silvery shores of Loch Morar. The loch is the deepest freshwater body in the British Isles. The loch is surrounded by a mix of natural woodland, open hillside, sheep and cattle pasture, and planted woodlands.

Picnic Lunch Enjoy a picnic lunch today.

Boat Trip on Loch Nevis Sail along Loch Nevis this afternoon. You may catch sight of the area's sea life, including an array of seabirds, otters, grey seals basking on rocks, dolphins, porpoises, and even minke whales.

DAY 7

Saturday
6/23/18

Arisaig

Until recently the Isle of Eigg was privately owned. The inhabitants were able to buy the island, which is an inspirational example of sustainable green living, owned and managed by its residents. It is shaped like an upturned boat or lion, surrounded by sparkling water.

Boat Transfer Take a boat ride to the Isle of Eigg this morning after breakfast.

Walk on the Isle of Eigg Enjoy a walk on the Isle of Eigg with a resident naturalists. 196 species of birds have been recorded on Eigg, with about 130 species being seen in a typical year. The variety in habitat also means plant life is abundant and diverse. Twelve species of orchid grow on the island and the island cliffs are home to a good cross section of Alpine and Arctic species such as Mountain Avens and saxifrages. Enjoy a picnic lunch along the way.

Farewell Dinner Have a farewell dinner with your new AdventureWomen friends. Reminisce over all of the memories you have made and celebrate the end of an incredible trip!
