Todos Santos

Todos Santos is an undiscovered gem, back-dropped by the Sierra de Laguna Mountains and rimmed with gorgeous beaches and lush gardens. It's an official Pueblo Magico, one of Mexico's 50 off-the-beaten-path towns known for their "magical ambiance."

Breakfast Start off your first day with a terrific Mexican breakfast prepared by Los Colibris Chef Iker Algorri.

Tortilla-Making Class Start your tortilla-making class right after breakfast to ensure that there are plenty of tortillas on hand for your cooking class tonight.

Surfing Class Hit the waves at beautiful Playa Los Cerritos, one of the best surf breaks in Baja, where your veteran instructor will work with you one-on-one, and guarantee that you'll ride the waves – at least for a moment! A spectacular crescent of sand, Los Cerritos is one of the best surf breaks in Baja. And with a smooth, sandy bottom and small waves breaking close to shore, it is the perfect place to introduce beginners to the joy of surfing. Haven't you always wanted to try this?

Picnic Lunch Enjoy a delicious picnic lunch on the beach.

Playa Punto Lobos Head to Playa Punta Lobos to greet the local fishermen as they come in with the daily catch. Chef Iker will instruct the group on the local fish and how he makes his buying decisions, and of course purchase the fish for the cooking class to follow.

Evening Cooking Class Head back to Iker's Colibris Café at Los Colibris Casitas to learn how to make the perfect margarita and Punta Lobos Fish Stew.

Todos Santos to Isla Espiritu Santo

Espiritu Santo National Park in the Sea of Cortez is part of a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and is one of the best marine life viewing destinations in the world. Whales, dolphins, whale sharks, sea turtles, manta rays and plenty of beautiful tropical fish call the surrounding waters home, while a terrific range of bird species including Blue-footed Boobies, Reddish Egrets, Great Blue Herons, and Yellow-footed Gulls frequent the island's skies and shores. The island itself is stunning, with magnificent towering cliffs, spectacular sandy bays, amazing lava rock formations, and rock art left by the now-extinct Guaycura and Pericu Indians. There's even an endemic ring-tailed cat, the babisuri. It's a remarkable place to explore.

[Travel to Drive to La Paz, where you will get on a boat for your 90-minute ride to your exclusive camp (AdventureWomen only!) on the beach. Wear your bathing suit this morning, just in case you get to swim along the way!

[Afternoon
Activities](#)

After lunch, spend your afternoon kayaking or stand up paddle boarding exploring hidden lagoons and desert beaches. Take a late afternoon hike as a group to explore the area and enjoy the sunset!

Isla Espiritu Santo to Magdalena Bay

Magdalena Bay is the largest wetlands ecosystem on the west coast of Baja and one of the most important in North America. The World Wildlife Fund ranks it as one of the most important coastal habitats in Mexico. Magdalena Bay has mangrove forests, barrier beaches and sand dune islands, all of which contribute to the incredible scenery and biological diversity of the area. The Bay is also the prime calving ground for the gray whale, and January to March it is possible to see – and often touch – a large number of whales, including mothers and calves.

Morning at Leisure Enjoy one last morning on the beach at your spectacular glamping site.

Transfer to Magdalena Bay Take a boat to La Paz, and then transfer the 4.5 hours by road to Magdalena Bay. Settle into your hotel and get excited for whale watching tomorrow!

Magdalena Bay

The Gray whale is the largest animal to have ever exhibited friendliness towards humans. There is little to compare with the experience of closely observing a mother nurse her calf, or seeing juveniles leaping exuberantly out of the water. They frolic, breach, spyhop, and lobtail, while spouting heart-shaped clouds of mist into the cool midday air. The young calves are especially curious, following and sometimes even nuzzling up to the whale-watching skiffs. Sometimes they catch a ride on their mother's backs!

Full Day
of Whale
Watching Head out onto the water for a full day of interacting with whales. Highly experienced local staff will ferry you through the waters of Magdalena Bay to whale watch from motorized skiffs, perfect conveyances from which to have a “whale’s eye view” of the Great Grays!

Dinner Enjoy dinner at your hotel tonight.

Magdalena Bay to Todos Santos

One of the most striking things about the Baja peninsula is the incredible juxtaposition of desert and sea, happy home to both cactus and seagull. Artists and photographers are lured here by the quality of light, marine sports enthusiasts come to enjoy the challenging fun above and below the surface of the inviting big blue sea, and the local residents enjoy a stress-free lifestyle, welcoming visitors who seek a multi-layered getaway.

Return to Todos Santos The drive back to Todos Santos and Los Colibris Casitas will take about four hours. Stop for lunch along the way. This evening, enjoy a final Baja sunset from a patio or balcony.

Farewell
Dinner End your spectacular week with a Farewell Dinner at the Restaurante La Casita Tapas and Wine Bar. One reviewer said that "each dish exceeds in every way what taste buds expect of well-concentrated and carefully prepared dishes. 'Succulent' as a description doesn't do the food justice. Think 'excellent' and you'll be close."

As you get ready to pack for your adventure, have a look at The AdventureWomen Store at www.theadventurewomenstore.com - we have picked out our favorite travel clothes and outdoor gear to help make packing easy for you. You can also see our recommendations for this trip on the AdventureWomen Pinterest page.

Baja has two seasons: a dry season and a green season. Verano, the dry season, runs from December to April, and invierno, the rainy or “green” season runs from May to November. It can, however, rain in the dry season and be dry in the rainy season, so you should be prepared for precipitation regardless of the season! As far as temperatures, expect highs in the high 70s and 80s and lows in the high 50s or 60s.

In general, you can dress very casually on this Baja vacation. The temperatures and weather on the Baja Peninsula in Mexico can be quite warm, but can also be quite cool during the mornings and evenings, especially if it is windy. Dressing in layers while whale watching on Magdalena Bay and while sea kayaking is recommended.

Adventure Travel Today

At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!
