DAY 1

Saturday
6/15/19

Arrive in Reykjavík

Velkomin! As the Iceland summer sun skims the midnight horizon, sunset melts into sunrise in this country of lush meadows and snow-capped mountains, hot springs and geysers, braided flood plains, frozen lava fields, and glaciers on top of volcanoes. You will hear stories of the Saga ages and the island's Viking history, learn about Icelandic traditions and way of life and see where the world's first parliament was held. You also get to see life in today's countryside, and view homesteads of the "hidden people"— the elves, trolls, and ghosts, who have set their historic mark on this fascinating and surreal landscape.

Arrival and Meet Guide

After meeting as a group for the first time at the airport, you will be met and welcomed by your Icelandic guide, and transferred to the northernmost capital in the world, Reykjavík.

Reykjanes Peninsula

Go on a sightseeing tour on the Reykjanes peninsula, with its vast lava fields and geothermal activity. Go from the bridge between the continents to the Reykjanes Lighthouse, situated on the breathtaking coastline, and then to Grindavik harbor for a welcome breakfast in a local cafe.

ATV Ride

Breakfast is followed by a thrilling (one hour) ATV ride through the rugged terrain of the volcanic peninsula. Quad biking in Iceland is a fun activity, and the ATVs are automatic and easy to drive, so no experience is needed. The ride takes you through various lava-fields and the old harbor. You'll ride through rocky mountain paths towards the summit of Mt.Hagafell, with 360 degree panoramic views and be able to see the Blue Lagoon, volcanic craters, and Mt.Fagradalsfjall.

Visit to Hafnarfjörður Town

Visit Hafnarfjörður town, one of Iceland's most important ports long before Reykjavík was even a village. It is picturesquely located among craggy lava fields, and has a thriving port and fishing industry. Learn about the "hidden people", the elves and dwarfs, who are so closely knit into traditional Icelandic history.

Reykjavík to Reykholt via Snæfellsnes Peninsula

Stretching from soaring peaks on its eastern boundary to the ghost-haunted shores of the Atlantic in the west, Snæfellsjökull National Park is a microcosm of Iceland's bewitching geography. Its crowning glory, Snæfellsjökull Glacier, rises 4,800 feet above sea level; its underlying volcano has been dormant for nearly 1,800 years.

Leave Reykjavík Head out early this morning and drive under the sea tunnel to the Snæfellsnes peninsula.

Snæfellsnes National Park Spend most of your day driving and walking in Snæfellsnes National Park. You'll get stunning views all along the way. Declared a National Park in 2001, the area has an astonishing variety of natural landscapes, including moss-covered lava fields, pebbled beaches, and rugged cliffs.

Reykholt

The town of Reykholt—a little hamlet set in the wide open spaces of a fertile, pastoral valley—is a highlight of any visit to the west coast.

Visit Cave Víðgelmir

Visit the largest and most spectacular Lava Cave in Iceland this morning, Cave Víðgelmir. Hailed as the mightiest of Iceland's caves, its diversity and grandeur is unrivalled. Just shy of 5,250 feet, the cave features amazing colors and lava formations that lurk in the depths of the earth.

Lunch

Enjoy lunch on your own today at a local restaurant.

Visit a Goat Farm

Stop for a visit with Johanna Bermann at her Icelandic goat farm. In the year 2000, Johanna secured the last 4 hornless goats in Iceland, then on the brink of extinction, and bred them back to a sustainable population. She established the Icelandic Goat Conservation Center, and there are now over 800 Icelandic goats in the country!

Visit the Snorrastofa Museum

Arriving in Reykholt, you will visit the Snorrastofa Museum. This fascinating and excellent museum is the best place to learn about Iceland's rich history of saga events, characters, and writing.

Local Brewery

Visit Europe's Largest Natural Hot Spring

End the day by soaking in the Krauma Spa at Deildartunguhver, the largest natural hot spring in Europe. Drawing on the geothermal reserves of the area, it pumps out a staggering 180 liters of boiling water each second, and the billowing clouds of steam created by this mighty fissure are truly impressive.

breakfast, lunch, dinner

Reykholt to Flúdir

Welcome to this charming village of Flúdir, with its rolling hills, streams, geothermal springs, greenhouses and mild weather. It's the ideal location for our explorations of the Golden Circle, and to simply enjoy this area's beauty.

Snowmobile Experience

Start today with a thrilling experience, going by snowmobile at the top of Langjökull glacier and into a man-made ice tunnel, which takes you right into the blue ice. A once-in-a-lifetime experience!

Drive through the Kaldidalur Valley

Drive through the haunting and barren beauty of the Kaldidalur Valley along the "notorious" mountain road. You will pass four glaciers, then travel through a vast gray desert where ferocious sandstorms can appear in seconds, transforming what was once a clear vista of majestic ice caps and volcanic sands into an impenetrable cloud of grit and dirt. As the route climbs along the ridge, it affords spectacular views of the glaciers.

Thingvellir National Park

Your next destination is historic Thingvellir National Park. You will see the spectacular natural amphitheater, where almost every important moment in Iceland's history has taken place. Today Thingvellir is still regarded with reverence by Icelanders, its historical weight reinforced by a serene natural beauty. Thingvellir sits right on top of the Mid-Atlantic Ridge, and you can clearly see the dividing plates and the lake-filled-valley that has developed between the plates.

Great Geysir Hot Spring and Gullfoss Waterfall

Continue on to the Great Geysir hot spring area and Gullfoss Waterfall (the Golden Waterfall), two of Iceland's most famous sights. Although the Great Geysir itself has been inactive since the 1960s, its neighbor geyser, Storokkur, fires off a 30-meter-high spout every few minutes.

From the farm we drive toward the Þjórsárdalur valley with a stop at the beautiful Hjalparfoss waterfall. We leave our car at the Viking ruins (Stöng) and walk along to the paradise valley Gjáin. Gjáin is a tiny valley with lots of small picturesque waterfalls, clear, tranquil ponds and amazing delicate volcanic structures. It is a beautiful sample of everything Icelandic nature has to offer.

Adventure Travel Today

At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!

In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a
