Arrive in Paro
Bhutan, a jewel between India and China, is about the size of Switzerland. Within its small boundaries the ecological diversity is amazing. Through centuries of self-imposed isolation, Bhutan has been able to preserve its spectacular environment and nurture its unique culture. Drawing inspiration from its neighbour, Tibet, Tantric Buddhism has flourished and influenced art, crafts, and architecture for hundred of years, and has shaped the Bhutanese way of life.

Paro
Haa is the ancestral home of the Queen Grandmother and the illustrious Dorji family. This valley remains one of the least visited areas in the country and retains the air of an unspoiled, primeval forest. The wooded hills of Haa provides an ideal location for hiking.

Excursion to Haa
Drive to Chele La Pass at 13,000 feet en route to Haa. Enjoy panoramic views of the Paro and Haa valleys as well as the Himalayas and the Kachenjunga. With its three prominent hills representing the three guardian deities, the valley is said to have been named by Guru Rimochey himself - “Haa” means mystical.

Enjoy a picnic lunch and explore the area on foot. You’ll be blown away by the views of the surrounding countryside.

DAY 3
Tuesday
11/10/20

Paro to Bumthang

The name Bumthang has two probable origins; the first is that it is named after a Bumpa, a vessel for holy water which the valley resembles in shape. The second origin implies that it is the Valley of Beautiful Girls. These fertile valleys are covered in fields of buckwheat, rice, and potatoes. Apple orchards and dairy farms are also common sights here. This serene region is one of the most peaceful places in the kingdom.

Fly to Bumthang

Take a short flight from Paro to Bumthang this morning.

Jambey Lhakhang

Visit Jambey Lhakhang in Bumthang. This temple, along with Kyichu Lhakhang in the Paro Valley, is one of the two oldest temples in Bhutan. It was built around 750 by King Songtsen Gampo of Tibet as part of his pledge to build 108 temples to the Buddha during his lifetime. One of the most holy of Bhutan’s religious sites, you will have special permission required to visit the sacred temple.

Kurjey Monastery

Continue to Kurjey, a 17th century temple next to which a spectacular monastery has been completed. It was built to resemble the heavenly abode of the Guru Rimpochey. The funeral rites of the senior members of the Royal Family are sometimes conducted here.

Walk to the Tamshing Monastery

From Kurjey, begin your walk through the countryside, crossing a bridge over the rushing Chamkhar Chu (river) and walk through paddy fields to Tamshing. This temple complex was founded in 1501 by one of Bhutan’s most famous saints, Pema Lingpa. There are many young monks in training here.

DAY 4
Wednesday
11/11/20

Bumthang
Pema Lingpa was a Tibetan saint and siddha of the Nyingma school of Tibetan Buddhism. He is considered to be a discoverer of spiritual treasures. In the history of the Nyingma school in Bhutan, Pema Lingpa is second only in importance to Padmasambhava. Padmasambhava appeared before Pema Lingpa at the holy site of Yigé Drukma, blessed him, and placed in his hands an inventory of 108 major termas, or hidden teachings to be revealed. During his lifetime Pema Lingpa revealed only about half of the prophesied treasures.

Explore the Tang Valley
Drive to Tang Valley, one of the most remote valleys of Bumthang. As it is higher than Chokhor and the soil is not as fertile, there is not much agriculture here, although the valley turns bright pink with buckwheat flowers in fall. The people of this valley raise sheep and, at higher elevations, Yak.

Drum Ceremony with Nuns
Arrive at the Pema Choeling Nunnery, a large nunnery where about 100+ anim (nuns) complete 12 years of study. This is one of the few places for women to be educated as nuns. Once in the Lhakhang, participate in an impressive spiritual drum ceremony with the nuns for the well-being of all sentient beings and world peace. Share stories with the nuns about your life and learn about theirs!

Jakar Lakhang
On the way back to your hotel, visit Jakar Lakhanga, the temple manifested as the celestial abode of Guru Rinpoche.

DAY 5

11/12/20

Bumthang to Trongsa

Trongsa is situated on a steep ridge and offers spectacular views of the deep valleys surrounding it. Trongsa Dzong is easily visible from anywhere in the town and is always an impressive sight as it is situated atop a steep ridge that drops off into the clouds on its south side.

Driving to Trongsa
Leave Bumthang this morning for Trongsa. Stop in the Chumey Valley at a traditional Yahtra sheep wool weaving center. Pick up some souvenirs here if you want! Drive over Yotongla Pass at 12,000 feet, and descend down to Trongsa.

Ta-Dzong
This watchtower, which once guarded Trongsa Dzong from internal rebellion, stands on a promontory above the town. It was built by Chogyal Minjur Tempa, the 1st Governor of Trongsa in 1652. It has four observation points resembling Tiger, Lion, Garuda, and Dragon. Climb up the path to visit Ta Dzong which now houses a shrine dedicated to the epic hero, King Gesar of Ling. A visit to this former watchtower provides visitors with an insight into the significance of Trongsa in Bhutan’s history.

DAY 6
Friday
11/13/20

Trongsa to Gangtey

Black-necked cranes in Bhutan are winter visitors, arriving in late October and staying until mid-February in the Phobjikha Valley as well as Ladakh, India, and Arunachal Pradesh, India. They arrive from the Tibetan Plateau, where they breed in the summer. They visit the Phobjikha valley in large numbers, which is a declared protected area for the cranes, and also to other valleys in smaller numbers in central and eastern Bhutan. On arrival in Phobjikha they are seen to circle Gangtey Monastery three times as if practicing kora (“circumambulation”), and repeat this act as they begin their return to Tibet in early spring.

After breakfast leave Trongsa, and drive to the Phobjikha valley. The journey will take approximately four hours on fairly rough roads, depending on the number of stops you make along the way. On arrival in the valley, you will see one of the oldest and wealthiest private monasteries in Bhutan - Gangtey Goenpa. The head lama of Gangtey Goenpa is the ninth incarnation of Pema Lingpa, a famous 14th century blacksmith from Bumthang who is one of Bhutan’s most famous Buddhist saints and teachers.

This area is famous as the winter home for the very rare black-necked crane. Experts estimate that fewer than 6,000 cranes exist in the wild. Every year, approximately 800-1,000 birds arrive in Phobjikha Valley late October and stay through mid-February.

Take a beautiful nature hike through the valley, overlooking the plains created by the glacier that some claim is like the setting of a Shangri-La. The forests surrounding the valley are full of birds and mammals alike, and this hike is a wonderful way to experience this pristine ecosystem.

DAY 7

Gangtey to Punakha

Punakha has been inextricably linked with momentous occasions in Bhutanese history. It served as the capital of the country from 1637 to 1907 and the first national assembly was hosted here in 1953. Punakha valley has a pleasant climate with warm winters and hot summers. It is located at an average elevation of 3,900 feet above sea level. Owing to the favorable climate, rice grows very well in this region and is the main cash crop cultivated here.

Punakha Dzong

The Punakha Dzong was built in 1637 by Shabdrung. It is situated at the confluence of the “Pho” and “Mo” Chus (Father & Mother rivers), guarding the Southern end of the Punakha valley. This huge fortress was the capital of Bhutan until 1966. The “Je Khenpo” (head religious abbot) of Bhutan and most of the monks in Thimphu live in this Dzong throughout the winter, as the lower elevation of the Punakha valley is warmer than higher elevations. In 1651, Shabdrung went into retreat and passed away soon after. For fear of civil unrest his death was kept a secret for over 50 years.

The juxtaposition of ancient tradition and modernity make Thimphu the ideal location to immerse yourself in the lifestyle of contemporary Bhutanese.

DAY 11

Wednesday

11/18/20

Paro

Taktsang Lhakhang is Bhutan’s most iconic landmark and religious site. The name Taktsang translates to “The Tiger’s Nest.” This temple is one of the most holy sites in the kingdom and clings impossibly to a sheer cliff face 900 hundred meters above the Paro Valley. It was first built in 1692 at a cave where Guru Rimpoche meditated in the 7th century. Legend states that Guru Rimpoche flew to the site atop the back of a tigress and meditated in the cave for three years, three months, three days, and three hours in order to subdue evil demons residing within it. The cave has been considered a sacred site ever since and many famous saints have traveled to meditate in it.

Some pilgrims walk for a month to reach this temple. The surrounding area has many temples, monasteries, and cells where many monks, nuns, and lay-people can meditate, some even for a lifetime. Although you are not allowed inside the monastery, you can hike up to the view-point for a spectacular and breathtaking view of Taktsang. The hike is 4-5 hours round trip and goes up to just over 10,000 feet in elevation.

Adventure Travel Today
At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not “tours.” We define “adventure travel” as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a “tour,” in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!
