DAY 1

Arrive in Bangkok

Centuries ago, the people of Thailand and Laos harnessed the forces of nature to create a verdant, harmonious, and deeply spiritual paradise. Travel well off the beaten path in Southeast Asia to live as the locals do, discovering the region’s most spectacular sites, iconic temples, and wonderfully welcoming people of these two countries.

Pick-up and Transfer
There will be one group transfer provided from the airport around 10:00am. The exact transfer time will be determined closer to departure. AdventureWomen can arrange additional airport transfers for an extra fee. Taxis from the airport are metered and also quite simple to navigate if you prefer to make your own way to the hotel.

Lunch on Your Own
Have lunch on your own today either at or nearby your hotel before meeting your group.

Meet Your Guide
Meet your guide and your AdventureWomen Ambassador at 1:00pm in the lobby café to the left of the main Muse Hotel entrance.

Wat Arun
Take the sky train and a local ferry across the Chao Phraya River to Wat Arun (Temple of Dawn). This stupa-shaped temple spire is decorated with colored glass and Chinese porcelain. Enjoy sunset at the temple. Take a ferry and taxi back to the hotel.

Welcome Dinner
Have a welcome drink at the hotel before heading out for your welcome dinner - at a street food bazaar! Head into one of the local night markets for endless options from the many street food stalls. Your guide will help you understand what you are eating and which part of the country it comes from. Get to know your fellow travelers this evening and learn about why each woman on your trip is excited to explore Thailand and Laos!

Bangkok
The real name of Bangkok is: Krungthepmahanakhon Amonrattanakosin Mahintharayutthaya Mahadilokphop Noppharatratchathaniburirom Udomratchaniwetmahasathan Amonphimanawatansathit Sakkathattiyawitsanukamprasit, meaning “City of Angels, Great City of Immortals, Magnificent City of the Nine Gems, Seat of the King, City of Royal Palaces, Home of Gods Incarnate, Erected by Visvakarman at Indra’s Behest.” Call it Bangkok for short!

Kayak to a Local Market
After breakfast, drive to a small coffee shop where you can sip a coffee or tea while you learn about kayaking techniques. Kayak a little less than an hour through a small floating market. You might want to buy a fresh coconut as a refreshing drink before paddling back to the café.

Longtail Boat Ride
Hop in a longtail boat for a short ride to lunch. Enjoy a local noodle soup or a mixed noodle dish.

Dinner
Enjoy dinner as a group at a local restaurant.
Bangkok to Luang Prabang

Luang Prabang is the ancient, royal, and spiritual capital, and UNESCO heritage site - step into the slow, quiet, intentionally present world of Laos.

Fly to Luang Prabang
Drive to the airport and fly to Luang Prabang this morning. You'll say goodbye to your Thai guide at the airport, but you will see your guide again in Chiang Mai in a few days. Be dressed to explore Luang Prabang by bike when you arrive!

Lunch
Savor some of the best Laotian dishes when you arrive in Luang Prabang.

Explore by Bike
Set out by bike to see the highlights of Luang Prabang. You'll spend about three hours exploring, but you will only bike about five miles on flat terrain.

You'll see the Royal Palace, home to the “Prabang” sacred golden statue from which the town takes its name. Stop at Vat Mai before continuing to the Heuan Chan Heritage House where you will gain a better understanding of Laotian architecture and culture, and how families lived in long houses up until about 1960. Visit Vat Xieng Thong, the most emblematic temple in Laos, glittering in gold paint and mosaic glass.

Dinner
Enjoy dinner at the hotel this evening.

Luang Prabang

The Pak Ou Caves contain thousands of gold lacquered Buddha statues which are crowded into two caves carved out of towering limestone cliffs. The statues range in size from a few centimeters to the size of a person.

- Cruise the Mekong
  Drive to the pier where you’ll board your private boat. Cruise about an hour and a half upstream to the Pak Ou Caves. You can buy snacks and drinks on board. Sip a coffee and watch the scenery as you float by.

- Explore Pak Ou Caves
  Hike uphill a half a mile to the higher cave or a quarter of a mile to the lower cave - both caves are full of candles, incense, and golden Buddhas. Soak in this fascinating place along the river.

- Lunch on the Boat
  Have lunch on the boat as you travel from Pak Ou Caves to the Luang Prabang pier.

- Traditional Arts & Ethnology Center
  Meet one of the two women who founded the Traditional Arts and Ethnology Center. Learn to identify what crafts come from which ethnic groups, how to tell between factory-produced and hand-made pieces, and learn about the challenges facing women in Laos today.

- Baci Ceremony
  This ceremony recalls the spirits of the body back; once this is done, symbolically, you tie cotton bracelets on each other’s wrists. You’ll participate in this ceremony at a local home with a family and a master of ceremony.

- Dinner

The local people are passionate about nature, and enjoy a calm, balanced, easy paced life.

Give Alms to the Monks

Chiang Mai

Hike to Wat Phu Lat

Head out on an easy hike through part of Doi Suthep National Park (the “mountain of the open heart”) to the jungle wat of Phu Lat. The hike will be about an hour and a half with minimal elevation gain. Walk along the stream among the gardens where statues, flowers, and jungle all mix together. You should wear closed-toed shoes.

Baan Kang Wat Artisans Community

Visit the artist colony of Chiang Mai. You will meet the next generation of local artists making their debut here in a funky collection of shops. The shops are a mix of indoor and outdoor space where you can see metal workers, painters, potters, weavers, and gelato makers!

Lunch and Afternoon

Lunch and the afternoon are on your own. You might want to get a massage at the hotel or head to the Hmong market where many ethnic groups buy the parts to make their clothes.

Cooking Class

Roll up your sleeves tonight and learn about the four key flavors that play into all Thai dishes. Each dish must have sweet, sour, salty, and spicy. As the Thai saying goes, “Mai pet, mai aloi!” or “Not spicy, not delicious!”

If you’d like to do anything prior to or following the AdventureWomen trip, we’d be delighted to help you arrange any trip extensions you’re interested in.

Note: The recent trend in travel is for travelers to finalize their plans much closer to departure time than was customary in the past. While we try to be as flexible as possible booking last-minute registrants, we must release hotel rooms two to three months prior to departure! Please keep this in mind when making your travel plans.
Luggage Restrictions: On this trip you can have one checked bag which can weigh no more than 44 pounds, and one carry on of no more than 15 pounds.

At this time of year, you can expect highs in the low 90s and lows in the 70s in Bangkok and on Koh Yao Yai Island, and highs in the 80s and lows in the 50s in Luang Prabang and Chiang Mai. You’ll need clothing for hot and humid weather as well as cooler evenings.

It is common to take off your shoes when entering homes, and required when entering temples, so plan on bringing shoes that are easy to slip on and off. Luang Prabang and Chiang Mai are more conservative, so please plan on covering your shoulders. You will need to wear pants or a skirt that covers your knees for any visits to temples.

Remember as you choose sunscreen, insect repellent, and toiletries that the ocean ecosystems around Koh Yao Yai Island are fragile. You’ll be in and out of the water, and everything you put on your body will likely end up in the ocean. Please be respectful of this unique ecosystem and consider buying reef-safe sunscreen and biodegradable toiletries.

You can plan on doing laundry in your room in the evenings (the air conditioning will help things dry), or you can pay to have laundry done at the hotels, which usually takes about 36-48 hours.

Clothing and Gear:
- Duffel bag or small suitcase
- Daypack
- 2-3 short sleeve shirts (quick dry recommended)
- 1-2 long sleeve shirts (quick dry recommended)
- 1 light weight fleece sweater/jacket for cool evenings/air conditioning
- 1-2 pairs of pants

- 1-2 sets of nicer clothes for dinner
- 1-2 bathing suits
- Rash guard for sun (optional)
- Waterproof jacket
- Hat for sun protection
- Underwear
- Socks
- Comfortable walking shoes/sneakers
- Sandals
- Sleepwear
- Snorkeling mask (optional) - if you have your own, bring it. If you wear glasses, consider bringing contact lenses or a prescription mask.

Adventure Travel Today
At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not “tours.” We define “adventure travel” as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a “tour,” in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!
