DAY 2
Monday
8/29/22

Lewiston to the Lower Salmon

The Salmon River area has been a home for various groups of people for at least the last 8,000 years. Much of the area was inhabited by several tribes, including the Nez Perce. The river was considered to be sacred ground, and it was a rich source of food for the indigenous people of the area, who relied on the abundant salmon and other wildlife.

Nez Perce National Historical Park

Leave Lewiston after an early breakfast and head out to the rafting trip launch point. On the way, stop at the Nez Perce National Historical Park for an introduction to the native peoples who lived along the Salmon River for thousands of years.

Launch the Rafts

After about two hours, you'll arrive at your launching point. Before launch, you'll be given a thorough safety briefing by one of your guides while the rest of the crew loads the gear onto the rafts. You'll learn how to paddle, ride, and swim safely in rapids. Pick a paddle or oar boat and hop in!

Start Rafting

Test your paddling skills as you start to raft down the river!

Lunch

Stop for a quick orientation in Leave No Trace ethics, and you'll learn the proper place to dispose of trash, how to use the bathroom, and where you'll be able to wash.

After the orientation, enjoy an open-air lunch!

Set Up Camp

Raft until about 4:00pm, when you'll stop and set up camp. You'll have a chance to swim, play beach games, read, or just relax.

Evenings at Camp

Enjoy hors d'oeuvres around 6:00pm, and dinner will be around 7:00pm. Share stories around the campfire this evening.

Tuesday

Salmon River

The Salmon River is also known as The River of No Return. It flows for 425 miles through central Idaho, dropping more than 7,000 feet between its headwaters above the Sawtooth Valley and its confluence with the Snake River. It is one of the largest rivers in the continental United States without a single dam on the main part of the river.

Breakfast

Wake up in camp and enjoy some tea or coffee before breakfast. Pack up, and set off on the boats for more rafting!

Green Canyon

Paddle your way into Green Canyon, which is the home of the famous Demon's Drop and Wright Way rapids; these rapids are an incredible thrill!

Lunch

Enjoy lunch on a large beach. Take some time to relax, swim, and play some games on the sand.

Afternoon of Quiet Water

This afternoon's rafting is mostly peaceful with a few small rapids. Take some time to take photos and search for wildlife along the banks.

Evening at Camp

These evenings will soon feel like it's the way every day should be. Set up camp, go for a dip, and enjoy hors d'oeuvres and dinner with your new friends!

DAY 4
Wednesday
8/31/22

Salmon River

Keep your eyes peeled for the American Dipper, also known as a water ouzel. The Dipper has the benefit of several unique adaptations such as an inner protective eyelid and an extra layer of downy feathers, which allow it to dive into cold, often turbulent rivers and stream, to swim and to walk along the bottom of the river. It uses the pressure of water on its wings and tail to help keep it down while it searches for insect larvae and other small animals on which to feed.

Cougar and Snowhole Canyons

On this thrill-packed whitewater rafting day, make your way through Snowhole Canyon and Cougar Canyon. Hit some larger rapids, including Snowhole, Bodacious Bounce, China, the Gobbler, Bunghole, and Lorna's Lulu, which are sure to give you some great stories to take back home!

Chinese Pit Houses

Stop along the river to see remnants of Chinese pit houses. Gold was discovered in the area in 1861, and in 1864, the area had been flooded by Chinese coming to seek their fortunes. By 1870, Idaho's population was 25% Chinese. Using manual labor and archaic hydraulic systems, they moved hundreds of tons of rock and earth looking for gold. They built rock houses that still stand as a monument to these settlements and the endurance of the miners.

Relax at Camp

Play horseshoes, rig the volleyball net, or just take a hike up a nearby hill this evening. Fall asleep to the crackling of the campfire.

Thursday
9/1/22

Salmon River

Have you wondered why the Salmon is called the River of No Return? When mining was in full swing on the river, wooden, flatbottomed boats were developed to take supplies and mining machinery from the end of the road at Salmon into the canyon. The boats were capable of carrying several tons in weight. However, the river was too swift to navigate the boats back unstream, so the boats were dismantled and used as lumber. Since the boats never came back to Salmon, the nickname "River of No Return" started being used around 1900.

Cottonwood Creek

Spend another day rafting through gorgeous scenery. For those who are feeling adventurous, you'll have a chance to swim through a rapid as you pass through Cottonwood Creek. You'll also have a chance for a rock jump today!

Blue Canyon

After lunch, float to Blue Canyon. The canyon was named because of its dark bluish igneous rock which covers the striking landscape. The river gets narrower at this point and turns into one long stretch of wild rapids. Tear through Eye of the Needle, Checkerboard, Sluice Box, and the Slide.

Tonight's Camp

Camp where the Salmon River merges with the Snake River on a stunning sandy beach. Natural beaches like this one are only seen on undammed rivers where sediment can travel freely down the river and finally come out to rest, forming lovely beaches!

DAY 6
Friday

Lower Salmon to Lewiston

Lewiston is the second-largest city in the northern Idaho region, behind Coeur D'Alene, and ninth-largest in the state. The Nimiipuu (Nez Perce) have inhabited the area for thousands of years, and the first people of European ancestry to visit the Lewiston area were members of the David Thompson expedition of 1803. Thompson was looking to establish fur trading posts for the Hudson's Bay Company of British North America (now Canada).

Confluence of the Snake and Salmon Rivers

If you didn't make it this far yesterday, you'll see the confluence of the Snake and Salmon Rivers today. There is a powerful energy where the mighty Salmon joins with the Snake at the bottom of Hell's Canyon. After you join the Snake River, you'll be pushed by twice as much water!

Take-Out of the Snake River

Enjoy one final riverside lunch. After several more miles of awe-inspiring river, you'll arrive at the stopping point of your river journey just below the confluence of the Snake and Grande Ronde Rivers.

Drive to Lewiston

It is a quick 45 minute ride back to the town of Lewiston, where you can shower and repack your bags.

Farewell Dinner

Have a farewell dinner with your new AdventureWomen friends. Reminisce over all the memories you have made and celebrate the end of an amazing journey through this truly spectacular country.

Adventure Travel Today

At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!

In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a
