2015 - A YEAR IN PICTURES

Merry Christmas! Ho Ho Ho! And Happy Holidays!

We hope that Santa will be good to you this year, whether you've been naughty OR nice! As you can see above, he's still in Montana with Rudolph, but it won't be long before he takes off to travel the world on his gift giving extravaganza!

Give Yourself the Gift of Travel

Offered next year only! Indulge yourself in a winter getaway to France's French Riviera, the Cote d'Azur, where its pleasant climate and legendary sunshine make it a paradise all year round! Then read some Fun Facts that will tantalize you about this beautiful Mediterranean coastline in the south of France.

Join us on New Zealand's South Island, a walker's paradise of awe-inspiring scenery and natural beauty, come face to face with endangered Mountain Gorillas on a once-in-a-lifetime discovery in Uganda, or fly from camp to camp on the ultimate Botswana "Wing" Safari.

How is beauty defined around the world? Research shows a strong link between self-perceptions about beauty and self confidence and well-being when it comes to women. Are you a "10"? Check it out...

In Light of the Recent Terrorist Attacks in Paris and San Bernadino...

...we urge you to not put off or cancel your trips to France (like the French Riviera and Provence), or to any of our other destinations in Europe, Egypt/Jordan and Africa.

It is important to note that there have been no U.S. State Department warnings, alerts, or recommendations to stop traveling to France, nor are there travel warnings to the tourist destinations we are visiting in Egypt/Jordan and Africa.

To put it even more into perspective, you can stay home in the United States, a country of 320 million people that loses over 33,000 people a year (close to 100 people a day) to gun violence, or continue to live your life. Your risks of being violently attacked while traveling anywhere else in the world are statistically far lower than they are in the U.S.

It is my belief that the best way for Americans to fight terrorism is to keep on traveling. May the terrorists lose because we do not fear.

"Not sure how you do it, but the [women] who go on your trips are terrific... . The real heroines of the adventure were our fantastic porters... what a brilliant idea to use women. Over and over again on this [Nepal Trek], I was reminded how incredibly lucky I am." - Nepal Lodge Trek in the Himalayas, October 2015
