AdventureWomen is the oldest adventure travel company for active women over 30.

“Those who come to the Langhe ... are seduced and sometimes irrevocably won by the beauty of its landscape, the ancient grace of its towns and the modus vivendi of its people, firmly determined, yet ever ready to grasp the flower of happiness with an unexpectedly gentle hand.”

- Italian writer Danilo Manera

Remarkable cuisine, exceptional wines, and daily walks through the gorgeous vineyards and villages of northwest Italy — all in the company of other fascinating and adventurous women. What could be better?

But wait! There’s more. A truffle-sniffing dog, castles and palaces, artisan-made meats and cheeses, historical museums, hazelnut deserts, regional art, fashion boutiques, funky aperitivo bars, and the King of Wines. This trip offers you an 8-day immersion into the BEST of Italy!

Our walking and hiking adventure is based in the Langhe and Alta Langa region of Piemonte (a.k.a. Piedmont), which is one of the most beautiful places in the country. (It recently became a candidate for a UNESCO World Heritage Site.) Our walks take us through the foothills of the Alps (Piedmont means “at the foot of the mountains”) and on a combination of paved back roads, farm paths, and tractor tracks. We enjoy stunning views of Mont Blanc and Mont Viso while following vineyard trails, wandering from one village to another. And there is something marvellous in each place: medieval castles, fortresses, and enchanting stone hamlets.

This is a place where some of the most famous wines in Italy - the powerful red Barolo, the elegant Barbaresco, and a multitude of fragrant crisp white wines - were named after their delightful hilltop towns and villages. It is considered to be Italy’s premium wine region and often compared to Burgundy. Simply put: Piemonte is a wine-and food-lovers paradise.

Perhaps because of its abundance of fresh produce and talented artisan food producers, the Slow Food movement started in the Piemontese town of Bra, and then spread throughout Europe, North America, and elsewhere. We’ll feast on artisan-made cheeses and meats, locally-grown fruits and vegetables, and savor the mouth-watering regional cuisine at family-run restaurants (osterias) recognized for their commitment to sustainable farming and agriculture. HIKING EXPERIENCE, PHYSICAL CONDITION REQUIRED, HEALTH INSURANCE

This hiking trip is rated as MODERATE, which means that you must be in very good physical condition. Trips of this designation offer moderate physical challenges. You should be able to hike from 5-8 miles, in rolling terrain. The terrain varies widely, from paved roads and cobblestone streets to uneven, single-track trails with loose stones or gravel, to dirt roads. The terrain can also be uneven and steep in the vineyards, so good hiking boots are recommended. A walking stick, if you prefer to hike with one, is also helpful. The pace on this tour is leisurely with stops en route to explore villages, and cultural and historical sites.

You MUST have your own health insurance. You must be in very good physical condition, a requirement essential to your enjoyment and personal safety, as well as the enjoyment and safety of the group.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE

You will need to coordinate your flights with our group pick-up and departure times. The group pick-up is at the Turin Airport, in Turin, Italy at 12:30 p.m., October 1, 2013. Most flights on major airlines arrive by 11:40 am on that morning. From the airport, it's about a 1- to 1.5-hour drive to our first hotel in Saluzzo. If you are unable to arrive for the pick up at 12:30 p.m., you will need to come in a day early and stay overnight in Turin, then come back to the airport to meet the group on October 1 at 12:30 p.m.

On October 8 you will be taken back to Turin and dropped off at the Turin Railway Station at 12 noon. Most flights depart very early in the morning on October 8, and it will not be possible to get everyone back to the airport in Turin for a flight out in the morning, as the journey from our last hotel in La Morra to Turin is at least 2 hours.

You might be able to get a flight out after 1:30 or 2 p.m on October 8. But most likely you will stay overnight in Turin and leave very early the morning of October 9, arriving back home on that same day.

DAY 2, Tuesday, October 1 Arrive in Turin, Italy and Transfer to Saluzzo

After the group pick-up, at 12:30 p.m. at the Turin Airport, we transfer by private coach to the medieval hill town of Saluzzo, which has retained its original, historic center and dates to the 15th century. Saluzzo is the artistic jewel of Piemonte, and is nestled at the foot of Monviso.

After settling into our hotel, we take a short walk to stretch our legs and to view the 13th century Castle of Manta, which houses what is often considered to be one of the finest masterpieces of Late-Gothic secular art. These delightful frescos show scenes of secular life, the Fountain of Youth, and portraits of some of Italy's most famous citizens.

Our hotel for tonight and tomorrow is Antico Podere Propano, a haven of comfort and quiet, located just a short walk to the center of town. Formerly a farm owned by the Marquis of Saluzzo, it has been trans-

DAY 3, Wednesday, October 2 The Po Valley

Today we travel into Valle di Po, a valley at the foot of Monviso. Known to the locals as the "King of Stone", or as the "Mont Blanc of the Southern Alps," Monviso sits entirely in Italian territory and is the highest mountain of the Cottian Alps (3841 meters/11,500 feet).

Scattered throughout the rugged and remote landscape in this area are beautiful valleys, which are the heart of Occitan tradition and culture. (Occitan is a language spoken only in Italy, mainly in the 15 alpine valleys in the Piedmontese provinces of Torino and Cuneo. The Occitan community emigrated here in the 13th and 14th centuries to escape religious persecution). This is also where the Po River begins its 430-mile journey to the Adriatic Sea.

A 45-minute transfer by van takes us from Saluzzo to Ostan. Here we have stunning views of the Cozie Alps and Monviso. Our hike is on well-maintained paths that climb through pastures and past the small stone houses that were used in the past as barns and shelters. Most have been converted into summer homes.

Return by van to Saluzzo. 4-hour walk.

(Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner)

Overnight Hotel Antico Podere Propano

DAY 4, Thursday, October 3 Barbaresco

After a hearty breakfast, we drive to Barbaresco, a small village that gave its name to the famous wine. Made from Nebbiolo grapes, Barbaresco is often referred to as the feminine version of Barolo.

The village has an imposing square tower, built in the late 10th century to protect it from foreign invaders. From the village we walk the Barbaresco path, a trail that links the two famous wine villages of Neive and Barbaresco. We walk through some of the most famous vineyards in Italy to reach Neive, another important wine village. We stop here to enjoy a splendid lunch.

After lunch, we return to Barbaresco on foot and taste the wines at the Cantina Produttori del Barbaresco, a cooperative of small growers in Barbaresco that produce very good wine at reasonable prices. After our wine tasting, we continue to our next hotel in the foothills of the Alta Langa, the heart of Piemonte's Monferrato wine country.

(Breakfast and Dinner)

Agriturismo La Piazza

La Piazza sits on 30 acres of Barbera d'Asti and Moscato d'Asti vineyards. Once the living quarters of local sharecroppers, this charming country inn has been converted into a premium 12-room hideaway set among Monferrato's breathtaking green hills. From handmade tajarin to local artisanal cheeses, La Piazza's extraordinary restaurant features authentic Piemontese cuisine prepared with only the finest locally grown ingredients.

DAY 5, Friday, October 4 The High Langa

This morning we depart for La Spinetta (which means "top of the hill"), one of the great wineries of Barbaresco. After our morning tasting we take a walk to explore the woods of the Alta Langa, ablaze with autumn colors at this time of the year.

Alta Langa (high langa), is also known as Langa of the Valleys, due to the three deep valleys that form its territory. This pristine area played a major role during the Italian Resistance in World War II, and was the setting for several famous local literary pieces. It has maintained its authentic character. Here, we see stone villages that seem suspended in time and the formidable 10th century fortress town of Prunetto Alta Langa, home to the "Tonda e Gentile" (round and gentle) — the hazelnut of Piemonte, ingredient par excellence in most of the local desserts.

DAY 6, Saturday, October 5 La Morra

Today we drive to La Morra, a pretty medieval town overlooking the Po Valley and one of the most important wine villages in the Barolo. It's also the highest hilltop town in the area and has spectacular views of the Langhe valley and the Alps.

After settling into our charming hotel, we set off to explore the vineyards around La Morra. Our trail takes us on dirt pathways to the tiny village of Annunziata and then on to a favorite trattoria for lunch. After lunch, we continue our walk back to La Morra.

In the afternoon we visit the cellars of one of the local producers and taste their range of the King of Wines: Barolo.

Tonight you're on your own for dinner and exploration of La Morra.

ABOUT ADVENTURE
TRAVEL TODAY
PLEASE READ CAREFULLY!

At AdventureWomen, we would like to ensure that all participants understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations, and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, however, we want our trips to be fun!

In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success, and well being of both individuals and the group.

DAY 7, Sunday, October 6 La Morra- Vergne- Barolo

Our hike this morning begins at our hotel and takes us through the vineyards to the small village of Vergne, where many of the houses are decorated with murals by local artists. From there we walk on country roads, tractor paths, and trails along the ridge, enjoying panoramic views of the surrounding hills and the Maritime and Cozie Alps. Along the way we pass through wheat fields and hazelnut orchards.

Our mid-day destination is Novello, a quaint village perched at the edge of a hill and founded by the Romans in the 1st century B.C. Here we stop for a simple lunch accompanied by local wines.

After lunch, we descend through the vineyards for another hour, arriving in Barolo, a town with a 13th-century castle where the world-class wine of the same name was created in the 19th Century. We tour the newly-created Barolo Museum before enjoying a tasting in the vaulted wine cellar.

4-hour walk

(Breakfast and Lunch)

Overnight Corte Gondina

DAY 8, Monday, October 7 Truffle Hunting

Today we take an excursion with a local truffle hunter, walking through the woods while his dog searches for the prized tuber — wagging its tail and racing back and forth, nose to the ground. Eventually (we hope!), it will start digging with gusto and uncover "black gold"! With luck, we follow our walk with a truffle lunch, prepared for us at a lake-side restaurant.

After lunch we take our final walk to the romantic castle at Verduno, built by the House of Savoy in the 17th century, which has been renovated into an inviting inn.

Returning to Corde Gondina, we celebrate our last night's dinner together after a wonderful week of walking, eating, and wine tasting!

3-hour walk

(Breakfast and Dinner)

Overnight Corte Gondina

DAY 9, Tuesday, October 8 Departure

This morning we are transferred back to Turin and dropped at the railway station at 12 noon. The RR station is convenient for transfers into town or the airport. However, most flights to the U.S. depart very early on the morning of October 8, so you will most likely stay overnight in Turin (unless you can get a late afternoon flight) and depart on October 9, arriving home that day.

(Breakfast)

WEATHER

Autumn is magical in the famous wine growing regions of Italy. At this time of year, a rainbow of color reflects off every hill and valley. Visits during the wine harvest, in September and October, is an ideal time to experience wine tastings.

Days are starting to get cooler in October, so it's perfect hiking weather. There are some warm days of course, and perhaps a few rain showers.

Temperatures can range from 60-70 F during the day time, occasionally warmer, and down to around 50 or a bit less at night.

WHAT TO BRING

As in all outdoor activities that include mountain travel, you must be well prepared for weather changes.

- Waterproof parka and rain pants. The TravelSmith, LLBean, and Campmor catalogs have excellent, breathable rain gear. See the "Resources" sheet in your registration packet.
- Medium-weight hiking boots. It is best NOT to wear shoes, even if they are walking shoes, because ANKLE support is absolutely essential, as is a good Vibram sole. You do not need to buy heavy, leather boots as there are numerous, medium-weight, quality hiking boots on the market. Asolo, Garmont, Merrill, Vasque, and other makes are widely available and designed especially for women. Since they are waterproof, Gore-tex boots, although a bit more expensive, are our first choice. Other boots should be waterproofed with one of the excellent waterproofing products available such as Nikwax. MAKE SURE your boots are well broken-in and that they fit properly. PLEASE DO NOT COME ON THIS TRIP WITH A PAIR OF BOOTS YOU HAVE NEVER WORN BEFORE!
- Comfortable hiking socks (Thorlo's or similar). It is best to wear two pairs of socks while walking, a thin liner sock and a thicker wool or hiking sock.
- Regarding Foot Care: To prevent blisters, many hikers use moleskin. However, we recommend bringing a small roll of ordinary duct tape as an alternative. Applied before the hike, it reduces friction much better than moleskin. If you develop a blister, Spenco "2nd Skin" is a very comforting necessity. Your foot care kit should also include: cloth Band-Aids (not plastic), individually wrapped alcohol pads, a small tube of Neosporin or other antibiotic cream, and foot powder.
- Comfortable shoes for evenings in hotels and mountain lodges.
- Medium-weight jacket, fleece jacket, or sweater for cool evenings.
- Small day pack: this should be large enough to carry a spare sweater, rain gear, camera, and a drink (or water bottle).
- Money belt, waist pouch, or a way to carry your money, passport, and airline tickets. You can leave these valuables at the hotels while day hiking.
- One-quart water bottle. We recommend the 24 oz. Nalgene Everyday OTG Tritan Bottle. Made of Eastman Tritan™ copolyester, the bottle is completely BPA-free. Tritan™ copolyester provides excellent impact resistance and is suitable for both warm and cold beverages.
- Pants (loose and comfortable for walking) and two pairs of walking shorts (if you like to wear shorts). Zip off pants are often the most versatile.
- Shirts (long- and short-sleeved) and a few T-shirts.
- Underwear, sleepwear.
- Hat for sun and rain protection.
- Swimsuit.
- Three bandannas (100% cotton) for uses too numerous to mention.
- Swiss Army knife or equivalent (for picnics, opening wine bottles, cutting cheese, etc.). Be sure to pack this in your checked luggage.
- Sunglasses, sunscreen, lip balm with sunscreen.
- Small flashlight with spare batteries and bulb to use if you need to get up at night and don't want to wake your roommate by turning on the lights.
- Earplugs (for snoring roommates, or other unforeseen noises...).
- Small travel alarm clock.
- Toiletries, prescription medications, and a washcloth (sometimes not provided in Europe). To cover all your bases, you might also include an Ace bandage, Pepto Bismol, Immodium, and Correctol.
- Ziploc bags in various sizes for dirty boots and dirty clothes, film, etc.
- Camera and plenty of extra memory cards, batteries, adaptor (if applicable), and battery charger.
- Book, notebook, pen, lightweight binoculars (optional).
- Ziploc bags in various sizes for dirty boots and dirty clothes, film, etc.
- Camera and plenty of extra memory cards, batteries, adaptor (if applicable), and battery charger.

- A collapsible walking stick (to fit into your suitcase) if you prefer to hike with one.
- Electricity: Italy's electric current is 220 volts, 2 prong European outlets, so if you are traveling with electrical appliances you will need an international converter. Cameras only need the 2 prong European adaptor.
