is this trip
right for me?

We rate this trip as moderate with 2 days of high energy and requires that you be in very good physical condition, and be able to hike 5-8 miles a day. Some of the landscape is quite mountainous. Many of the hikes are on footpaths through the woods or on old stone staircases, while others are on well surfaced roads. Paths are through rolling terrain and can be rough and uneven, so good hiking boots are recommended, as well as a walking stick if you prefer to hike with one. A typical day consists of 3-5 hours of leisurely hiking, with stops that include plenty of time for lunch, and exploring villages, cultural, and historical sites.

Adventure Travel Today

At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!

DAY 1

Sunday
9/24/17

Arrive in Hondarribia

Welcome to the Basques! This region is home to the Basque people, their language, culture, and traditions. The area is neither linguistically nor culturally homogeneous, but is a wonderful place to explore.

Arrival and Transfer

You will rendezvous at the San Sebastián Airport, at 1:30pm for the group pick up, and be transferred to the medieval, walled town of Hondarribia, located on the border of France and Spain. If you choose, meet at the hotel at 2:00pm instead of at the airport.

Cliff-Top Walk

This afternoon head out for a cliff-top walk, with magnificent views of the Bay of Biscay. On a clear day you can see all the way down the coast to San Sebastián. The trail takes you right down to the sea, where some of you (brave souls) might want to take a dip in the chilly Atlantic!

Welcome Dinner

Celebrate the first dinner at one of the best restaurants in town, within walking distance of the hotel.

Hondarribia

San Sebastián and its surrounding area is home to a high concentration of restaurants boasting Michelin stars. Based on the 2013 ranking, two of the world's top ten best restaurants can be found here. Additionally, the city features tasty snacks similar to tapas called pintxos, which may be found at the bars of the Old Quarter.

Coastal Walk

Leave the hotel and walk the first part of the northern route of St. James, which is better known as the Camino de Santiago del Norte. This is where many pilgrims started their long journey to Santiago de Compostela. You will probably bump into a few pilgrims along the way!

Take a scenic coastal path, passing a lighthouse and enjoying magnificent views.

Lunch

Enjoy lunch as a group today.

Explore San Sebastián

After lunch, transfer into San Sebastián, a chic coastal city with stunning architecture and the foodie capital of Spain.

It's impossible to lay eyes on stunning San Sebastián (Basque: Donostia) and not fall madly in love. San Sebastián frequently tops lists of the world's best places to eat. Its Playa de la Concha is the equal of any city beach in Europe. Enjoy a guided tour of the city this afternoon.

Head to Hondarribia and Dinner

At the end of the day shuttle back to the hotel, and enjoy a free evening for dinner to pick one of Hondarribia's wonderful restaurants.

DAY 3

Hondarribia to Ainhoa

The GR 11, also known as the ruta Transpirenaica in Spain, is part of the extensive GR footpath network of paths, tracks, and trails. It runs through the Spanish Pyrenees, passing only briefly into France. The trail starts at Cape Higuer (Basque Country), crosses Navarre and Aragon, and finishes at Cap de Creus in Catalonia.

Hike to Valle de Bidasoa

Hike one of Europe's long distance footpaths, the GR11, into the serene Valle de Bidasoa. There are more than one hundred long distance trails in Spain, and like in France, these are called GR (Sendero de Gran Recorrido) and marked with red and white signs. The trail starts in the picturesque village of Bera, and follows small roads and paths through farms and forests to the top of the ridge where there are panoramic views of the Pyrenees and the dramatic Atlantic coastline.

Ascend above tree line before descending to Sare, where you can explore this afternoon.

Lunch

Enjoy lunch on your own today.

Check-In and Dinner

Explore Sare this afternoon. The village is famous for its beautiful houses and the regional specialty "Gateau Basque" - a cake filled with black cherry jam. Enjoy dinner as a group at the hotel.

Ainhoa

According to legend, a young woman from Zugarramurdi had the power to fly, and strange occult activities were held regularly in a cave near town. The Spanish government rounded up the accused in 1610 and tried them in the largest trial of its kind in history. Over 7,000 individual cases were tried and 53 individuals were found guilty of practicing witchcraft. Years of non-superstitious beliefs later, all the alleged witchcraft was deemed traditional folk medicine and the Inquisition was deemed an atrocity.

Morning Hike Return to the village of Sare by van, and then pick up the “blue pony trail”, which passes the Grottes de Sare and takes you along one of the old smuggler’s routes into France, where you cross the border into France and stop for lunch at a venta. Ventas are the places where contraband was exchanged when smuggling was at its height. Today most of them are bars and restaurants, although you can still buy duty-free alcohol and cigarettes here! After lunch, hike into Zurrumurdi.

Witch Museum This village owes its origin to the Urdax monastery. The original inhabitants worked the land for the monks, and it later became famous for smuggling, before settling into farming and crafts. Many of the houses are at least 400 years old and were inhabited by so-called witches, for which the village is famous.

The town seems to have taken back its identity not by distancing itself from its historic tragedy, but by embracing its legacy, warts and all.

The Caves of Zugarramurdi Visit the famous caves before continuing your hike onto Urdax.

Dinner Transfer back to Ainhoa from Urdax and enjoy dinner on your own.

DAY 5

Thursday
9/28/17

Ainhoa to Saint-Étienne-de-Baïgorry

The Basque language or euskara is the oldest living language in western Europe. Basque has fewer words than French, although over time it has absorbed many words of Iberian, Latin, Gascon, and Arabic origin, as well as countless words borrowed from French and Spanish which have been more or less made Basque in order to express new realities or nuances specific to these languages.

Morning Hike Walk directly from the hotel up into the hills above Ainhoa. This panoramic walk starts by walking up to a tiny chapel. From here, you'll enjoy excellent views of Ainhoa and the surrounding areas. On this hike, you'll climb up to 2,000 feet, with companions of pottocks, wild horse, sheep, and vultures.

Lunch Enjoy lunch on your own in Ainhoa.

Transfer to Saint-Étienne-de-Baïgorry Transfer to Saint-Étienne-de-Baïgorry this afternoon. The village is named for the rose-colored granite and soil which gives the River Nive a rosy hue when it overflows its banks. We will also see the rose granite used for building farms and houses in the valley.

Dinner Enjoy dinner at the hotel this evening.

Saint-Étienne-de-Baïgorry

Pied-de-Port means 'foot of the pass' in Pyrenean French. The routes from Paris, Vézelay, and Le Puy-en-Velay meet at Saint-Jean-Pied-de-Port and it was the pilgrims' last stop before the arduous mountain crossing.

Trace the Pilgrim's Path to St. Jean Pied de Port

Like millions of pilgrims before you, today you trace the pilgrim's path to St. Jean Pied de Port. St. Jean Pied de Port is a beautiful bustling French market town in the foothills of the Pyrenees, which creates a natural border between France and Spain. It is the traditional starting point for the Camino Frances, the most popular of all the Camino routes.

The town was so-called because it was the doorway to the Pyrenees, and you will pass through the historic Saint Jacques Gate to enter the town. From here pilgrims left the village by way of the Spanish Gate and then passed into Spain over the Pyrenees. St. Jean is famous for its livestock markets and its sheep cheese, or Brebis. This is also the best place to find a beret, which although adopted by the French, is originally Basque!

Lunch Have lunch on your own this afternoon.
