Packing Considerations: The islands of Japan extend from sub-Arctic climates in northern regions, to sub-tropical climates in the southern and western Islands. Your itinerary is based in the Kansai and Kii Peninsula areas, which have a moderate climate. March marks the end of winter with daytime highs of around 60°F, but cold nights. There may be snow in the mountain villages. April is very pleasant, with daytime highs of around 60-70°F. Nighttime temperatures and temperatures on the Kumano Kodo may be a few degrees cooler, so you should be prepared to layer your clothing. While April is not a particularly wet month, there can be occasional rain so you will need to bring rain gear.

- 1-2 sets of nicer clothes
- Gore-Tex jacket/pants for rain
- Hat for sun protection

Adventure Travel Today

At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!

Arrive in Kyoto

Arrive in Osaka today and transfer to Kyoto. Kyoto is a city located in the central part of the island of Honshu, Japan, with a population close to 1.5 million. Kyoto was formerly the Imperial capital of Japan for more than a thousand years, and is now the capital city of Kyoto Prefecture located in the Kansai region, as well as a major part of the Kyoto-Osaka-Kobe metropolitan area. Kyoto is home to 17 UNESCO World Heritage Sites, from the 10th to the 19th century, and each is representative of the period in which it was built.

When you exit customs and immigration, make your way to the transfer desk for your shared taxi transfer to your hotel in Kyoto.

DAY 2

Sunday
4/1/18

Kyoto

Kyoto served as Japan's political, spiritual, and cultural capital from the 12th to the 19th centuries. While political power has moved to Tokyo, Kyoto has retained a firm grasp on Japanese culture and traditions and is renowned for its temples, festivals, and cuisine. You'll notice that even though Kyoto is one of Japan's largest cities, it doesn't have tall skyscrapers as you might expect. Few buildings or structures are taller than the pagoda of Toji Temple, located in the southwest of the central Kyoto area, which is the tallest pagoda in Japan at a height of 187 feet. The current pagoda dates to 1644, but the original was built in 864.

Ginkakuji Temple

Visit Ginkakuji Temple, or the Silver Pavilion this morning. This temple is popular for its gardens and tea house.

Stroll on the Philosopher's Pathway

Walk along the Philosopher's Path, with craft shops, cafes, shrines, and temples beside the clear waters of a small canal. One side of the canal is lined with cherry trees (and hopefully cherry blossoms!). Stop at Nanzenji, a tranquil Zen Buddhist temple with history dating back to the mid-13th century.

Maiko Experience

Enjoy a special private experience with a maiko, an apprentice geisha, or geiko, as they are known in Kyoto. Geisha are revered for preserving traditional arts of music and dance. There are only approximately 250 in Kyoto but they remain very much in demand for attendance at private functions. The world of the geisha is very closed and introductions are often only made through personal connections.

Walking Tour of the Gion

This afternoon, discover the back lanes and traditions of Gion, a famous district known for its tea houses, Geiko, and Maiko.

Dinner on Your Own

Enjoy dinner on your own this evening. Your guide will make restaurant recommendations.

Kyoto

Nara is home to some of Japan's greatest cultural treasures, many of which are situated in or near Nara Park. Nara was capital of Japan from 710 to 794, prior to Kyoto and Tokyo. Nara is home to a number of UNESCO World Heritage Site temples.

Pack an Overnight Bag

Today, your larger bag will be sent ahead to Takahara, where you will arrive tomorrow evening. Pack your essentials in your day pack to keep with you for this evening and hike with tomorrow. Essentials should include: pajamas, one set of hiking clothes for tomorrow, reusable water bottles, a spare foldable duffel (if you're a serious shopper!), and any essential medications and toiletries you will need. Note that Japanese hotels are very generous with their toiletries, so you may not need much!

Visit the Todaiji Temple

Walk in Nara Park

Walk through Nara Park, home to over 1,000 free-roaming deer. The deer are considered sacred messengers of the gods. You can purchase special rice crackers to feed the deer if you'd like.

Lunch on Your Own

Enjoy lunch on your own and spend some time exploring Naramachi, an older section of town home to craftspeople and small boutiques as well as restaurants and cafes.

Japanese Tea Ceremony and Afternoon at Leisure

Return to Kyoto to experience a traditional Japanese tea ceremony. This afternoon, enjoy some free time in the Higashiyama district to browse the many small shops offering traditional handicrafts and tasty local treats, including pickles and yatsushashi, a local sweet flavored delicately with cinnamon.

DAY 4

Tuesday
4/3/18

Kyoto to the Kumano Kodo

Now a UNESCO World Heritage site, the Kumano Kodo became popular in the 11th century as a place of pilgrimage. Kumano, part of the mountainous Kii Peninsula stretching south from the Kansai cities of Osaka, Nara, and Kyoto, has been a sacred site associated with worshiping nature since prehistoric times. The Kumano Kodo is associated with the Shugendo faith, a religion based on a form of mountain worship and blends a number of imported religions with native beliefs. At its core is an emphasis on physical endurance as a path to enlightenment.

Journey to the Kumano Kodo

Take the train from Kyoto to Kii Tanabe this morning. Once in Kii Tanabe, you will take a bus to Takijiri.

Lunch

Enjoy lunch before you start your hike.

Hike From Takijiri to Takahara

Begin your walk on the Nakahechi portion of the Kumano Kodo pilgrimage route. From Takijiri the path climbs steadily for about two hours to the ridge-top village of Takahara. Your lodging tonight features hot spring baths made of cypress wood. Your delicious evening meal is made with organic, locally-sourced ingredients. You'll be reunited with your bag tonight.

Kumano Kodo

The Nakahechi route of the Kumano Kodo pilgrimage network has been used extensively since the 10th century, when Japan's Imperial ancestors first began the tradition. The classic pilgrimage circuit began in Kyoto at Jonan-gu shrine and finished with a visit to Kumano Nachi Taisha. On the return journey to Kyoto, pilgrims either retraced their steps or took the mountainous Ogumotori-goe and Kogumotori-goe passes to Hongu.

Hike From Takahara to Chikatsuyu

Enjoy an early Japanese breakfast before departing your inn. Follow the trail as it winds through small settlements and peaceful countryside. You will pass several Oji shrines before finally descending to the village of Chikatsuyu. The paths are clearly defined, and flagstones have been laid in some places to make the climbs easier.

Lunch and Meet Local Women

Enjoy lunch and meet a local women's group, which preserves local folk songs and dances.

Afternoon at Leisure

Take some time to relax before dinner, which is served at your family-run minshuku guest house. Enjoy a soak in the hot springs bath, or perhaps take a short walk to the local shops where you can purchase popular Kumano foods to try. ### Kumano Kodo

Today, hike in and around Hongu, one of the sacred shrines of pilgrimage on the Kumano Kodo. At the heart of these sacred mountains, Kumano was said to be the entrance to the land of Yomi, the 'other world' to which spirits traveled in Japanese mythology.

Hike From Hosshinmon Oji to Hongu

From Chikatsuyu, take a local bus to Hosshinmon-oji, where you will walk a gentle section of the trail to the Kumano shrine at Hongu, one of the three
'Grand Shrines of Kumano'.

Meet a Yamabushi

During your walk, you will be accompanied by one of the few female yamabushi, or mountain ascetic priests. Learn more about the training of yamabushi and the Shugendo faith.

Traditional Washi Paper Making

Arrive in Hongu, where you will make traditional Japanese washi paper. The Kotsuga village in Hongu has long been famous as a center for handmade Washi paper. Otonashi paper is made from fibers of the mulberry plant, and was once dedicated at the Hongu Grand shrine in the form of paper amulets called Gou Shinpu. Create your own piece of Washi at the workshop, and return to Hongu to have it stamped with a special Shuin red seal at the Kumano Grand Shrine - a traditional pilgrim's souvenir and work of art.

Lunch

Enjoy lunch at a local cafe.

Optional Walk on the Dainichigoe

From the Kumano shrine at Hongu, walk the Dainichigoe to the Yunomine Onsen, one of the oldest natural hot spring onsen villages in Japan, famous for the thermal water bubbling to the surface of the crystal clear stream. Spend the night in Yunomine Onsen. Enjoy a relaxing soak in a Japanese bath (bring large bandages to cover tattoos or body art, as no clothing is allowed in this bath) before or after your delicious dinner.

4/6/18

Kumano Kodo

Kumano Nachi Taisha is an example of Buddhist and Shinto syncretism (Shinbutsu shugo) nestled in the Kii Mountains, near Kii Katsuura, Japan. Cedar forests surround the site.

Pack an Overnight Bag

Today, your larger bag will be sent ahead to Tokyo. Pack your essentials for the next two nights in a smaller bag.

Visit Nachi Taisha

Visit the shrine as well as the nearby Nachi waterfall, which is said to be inhabited by the kami spirit Kiryu Gongen. Nachi-san is one of the shrines of pilgrimage on the Kumano Kodo. The temples of Nachi-san are set in primeval forest, and are marked by an ancient stone approach, the Dogenzaka. The adjacent Nachi-no-taki or waterfall crashes to the rocks below and is the focus of the traditional worship of natural spirits.

Lunch

Enjoy lunch as a group.

Kumano Kodo to Ise

Ise has been considered a sacred place for 2,000 years, and the shrine is surrounded by 1,000-year-old cedar trees, but the buildings themselves are rebuilt every 20 years. The site is eternal and ancient yet characterized by regeneration and youthfulness.

Travel by Train to Ise

After breakfast, take the train to the Ise area.

Visit the Geku

The outer shrine, or Geku, is dedicated to the spirit of food, clothing, and housing. Devotees come to offer prayers of gratitude, and to maintain the purity of the shrines, visitors pray outside. Only the high priests, shrine maidens, and the Emperor are allowed to enter the buildings.

Okage Yokocho

The Okage Yokocho is an area of older buildings relocated here that previously stood on the old route of pilgrimage to the shrine. Most of the buildings are now shops or restaurants catering to pilgrims' more earthly desires. In addition to local delicacies and bean paste sweets, you'll find shops featuring local handicrafts and products, such as Matsusaka Momen - items made from indigo-dyed local cotton.

Visit Naiku

End your day with a visit to the solemn inner shrine. The inner shrine is dedicated to Amaterasu-omikami who ruled the celestial world of deities. She is viewed in Shinto as the ancestral deity not just of the Japanese line of Emperors, but also of the Japanese people. Visitors are sometimes surprised by the juxtaposition of the ancient and the new.

Tokyo

Tokyo is the capital of Japan, and is the eighth largest city in the world. Tokyo was originally a small fishing village named Edo, which means estuary. Its name was changed to Tokyo (to: “east”, and kyo: “capital”) when it became the imperial capital under Emperor Meiji in 1868. You’ll discover the city as the Japanese do today - by subway and train.

Hama Rikyu Gardens

Visit the Hama-Rikyu gardens this morning, located near the mouth of the Sumida-gawa, a large river that flows through Tokyo. The garden is divided into two major sections. The southern garden was the site of a villa where the Shogun (commander-in-chief) could relax, enjoy duck hunting, and entertain visitors from the 17th to 19th century. It contains the Shio-iri-no Niwa (garden with a tidal pond) which is on the sea, and its scenery varies with the ebb and flow of the tide. There is a striking contrast between the gardens and the gleaming towers of the new Shiodome business area beyond.

Nihonbashi

Stop at Nihonbashi (the “Japan Bridge”), which is considered to be the “center of Japan), and the starting point of all of Japan’s main roads since the Edo period.

Ginza

Spend some time in the elegant Ginza shopping district. Enjoy lunch along the way.

Meiji Jingu

Explore the Grand Meiji Shrine, near Harajuku this afternoon. The shrine is dedicated to Emperor Meiji, who was instrumental in modernizing Japan. This tranquil oasis is on the doorstep of Harajuku and Omotesando - areas known for avant-garde fashion and architecture.

Shiba Park 151 Hotel

Fall in love with Japan and experience the true meaning of Japanese hospitality, omotenashi, at the Shiba Park 151 hotel. The rooms are relaxing and elegant environments featuring a taste of Japanese culture. On the second floor, there is a Japanese Culture Salon "SAKURA", where, as the name suggests, you can experience Japanese culture, entertainment, and elements of lifestyle during your stay.
