October 6 - 15, 2019

Buenos Aires to El Calafate

El Calafate is a town in Patagonia, located on the southern border of Lake Argentino. The name is derived from the calafate, a small bush with yellow flowers and purple berries commonly found in Patagonia. The town was founded in 1927 but did not grow until the National Park was created in the 1940s. Tourism to this area has been growing steadily every year.

Fly to El Calafate Head to the airport as a group and fly to El Calafate. Enjoy lunch on your own on the way.

Nibepo Aike You'll be met by your local guide and transferred to your lodge. Settle into your room, and then learn about the activities over the next few days. The order of the activities might change a bit based on the farming activities and the weather.

Lunch Enjoy a fabulous lunch at Nibepo Aike and taste many local specialties.

Sheep-Shearing Demonstration Enjoy a sheep-shearing demonstration this afternoon at the estancia. One of the farm-hands will teach you about wool, and do a live shearing demonstration. Feel the wool and experience what it's like to be in close contact with the sheep.

Dinner Enjoy dinner as a group.

October 6 - 15, 2019

El Calafate

El Calafate is the gateway to Los Glaciares National Park. Located in the Santa Cruz province, Calafate was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1981. The name refers to the giant ice cap in the Andes that feeds 47 large glaciers. Los Glaciers is the best place in South America to see glaciers in action. Massive blue icebergs are launched into Lake Argentino with a thunderous splash.

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| Morning Hike | After breakfast, head out as a group on a hike from the lodge. Explore this fantastic landscape on foot and take in the stunning views. |
| Optional Afternoon Activities | After lunch at the lodge, you have some choices this afternoon - go on a horseback ride, take a bike ride, observe a shearing demonstration, or try your hand at some farm work! All of the options are sure to be unique. |

PATAGONIA

Torres del Paine to Santiago

October 6 - 15, 2019

El Calafate

The most impressive wildlife in the park is the birds. The many lakes offer an ideal habitat to black-necked swans, Chilean flamingos, the Andean Condor, Darwin's Rhea, and a variety of ducks and geese. Mammals include the Argentine grey fox, the austral hog-nosed skunk, and the guanaco.

Hike the Perito
Moreno
Glacier

Head out this morning for a glacier hike. Drive to the pier where you will meet your boat for a 20 minute ride across the Rico Arm, enjoying breathtaking views of the Perito Moreno glacier's front wall. Disembark on the opposite shore, where specialized bilingual mountain guides welcome you and lead you to a small shelter. Follow your guides along the lake's shore towards the edge of the glacier. Once on the ice you will be outfitted with crampons and taught how to use them.

Take a 90-minute hike along a circuit that introduces you to the fascinating landscape of the glaciers: streams, small lagoons, gullies, cravasses, and plenty of ice formations of the most incredible blues. The ice surface over which you walk is irregular, but firm and safe. Enjoy explanations about flora, fauna, and general glaciology of the region. After the walk, a stroll through the forest brings you back to the shelter.

Relax This Afternoon

This afternoon you can choose another activity offered by the ranch, or just kick back and relax.

October 6 - 15, 2019

Torres del Paine

Although native tribes like the Kaweskar have been coming to Torres del Paine for thousands of years (the name Paine actually is an indigenous word that means “blue”), European visitors like Lady Florence Dixie first started coming to see the area in the late 1880s, starting a flow of tourism that is now one of the main economies in the region.

Full-Day Hike

Begin the day driving across the park, admiring the view of Paine Grande's snowy peaks and the black, granite, horn-like spires of Los Cuernos. As you walk along the shores of the stunning Lake Pehoe, you will see the furious Salto Grande waterfalls where the water from Lake Nordenskjold cascades down into Pehoe. The van will drive you south to a beach along the shores of glacial Lake Grey. Begin your hike to Cerro Ferrier, a fairly steep route taking you through a fairytale-like Magellanic forest where you might spot the Huemul, the endangered South Andean deer. Hike uphill for about an hour and a half to reach a breathtaking lookout that will offer us a unique perspective of the Paine Massive, Grey Glacier and some of the most famous lakes of the National Park. Hike back to Grey Beach and head back to EcoCamp to enjoy a relaxed evening.

Hiking: 7.5 miles, 3.5 hours, difficulty: hard

Dinner

Have dinner in the Community Dome, which consists of the Dining Domes, the Bar Dome, a reading area, and an outdoor patio. This is a wonderful place to relax after an active day and get to know your fellow AdventureWomen travelers.

October 6 - 15, 2019

Santiago

Embraced on all sides by mountains – the mighty Andes to the east and the smaller coastal range to the west – on a clear day Santiago boasts one of the most incredible city scenes in the world. Old-world colonial mansions and eclectic neighborhoods transition seamlessly to the skyscrapers of “Sanhattan” in a captivating fusion of tradition and modernity.

Explore Santiago

Enjoy a tour highlighting Santiago's most important historical sites, including the downtown area surrounding the Plaza de Armas and the La Moneda Presidential Palace. You will also pass by the Mercado Central, one of Chile's largest fresh seafood markets and stroll by the many bustling stalls to see the tremendous variety available from Chile's bountiful sea.

Visit some of the lesser-known barrios of Santiago including Repùblica and Concha y Toro, which were historically privileged neighborhoods and home to Santiago's high society. There will be time to walk around and take photos of the varied styles of architecture dating back to the 19th and early 20th century. Continuing through the cobblestoned Lastarria neighborhood, walk through the Parque Forestal and pass by the Bellas Artes Museum. For a panoramic vista of the city, visit the top of Cerro San Cristobal Hill, 984 feet above the city.

Dinner Enjoy a delicious dinner in a local restaurant.

Santiago and Depart

Chile's move toward cool-climate viticulture began 25 years ago when innovative winemakers dared to suggest planting in the pre-coastal region of Casablanca Valley. Chardonnay continues to reign, but Sauvignon Blanc and Pinot Noir – two of Chile's most attention-grabbing varietals – are on the rise. In general, parts of Casablanca Valley are similar to California's wine-producing regions. More specifically, the climate of Casablanca is comparable to the Californian wine region of Carneros.

Villard Wines

Your first visit will be to Villard Wines, one of Casablanca Valley's premium boutique wineries. Villard was founded in 1989 by Thierry Villard, and is still run by this French-Chilean family, which prides itself on making traditional, elegant wines. With mineral rich terroir cooled by Pacific breezes, they are known for their whites, Chardonnay and Sauvignon Blanc, their Pinot Noirs. Perhaps their most unusual wine (for Chile) is the L'assemblage Gran Vin, a blend made with Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Mourvédre, Petit Verdot, and Grenache. Enjoy a tour and tasting.

Farewell Lunch

Sit down and have a farewell lunch as a group at a local restaurant near the town of Casablanca.

Kingston Winery

Stop at Kingston Winery for a tour and tasting. Since its first vintage in 2003, Kingston has been turning heads with its small production of Pinot Noir, Syrah, and Sauvignon Blanc. While coastal Casablanca is known for its white wines, Kingston is pioneering the production of cool-climate, artisan-style reds.

Transfer to the Airport

Say goodbye to your new AdventureWomen friends as you transfer to the airport for your flights home.

Please note: AdventureWomen will attempt to adhere to the itinerary as much as possible. However, certain conditions (political, climatic, environmental, and cultural) may necessitate changes in the itinerary. AdventureWomen reserves the right to alter any itinerary at any time, if necessary. We will attempt to notify participants of changes as far in advance as possible. Accommodation Details

Recoleta Grand Hotel

Recoleta Grand Hotel is a boutique hotel in Buenos Aires, located near the main shopping boulevards featuring fashionable boutiques, restaurants, cafes, galleries, and gorgeous belle epoque architecture. Its luxurious, modern rooms are decorated with stylish furnishings and the hotel has been granted an Eco-Friendly Certification.

Nibepo Aike

Nibepo Aike is an estancia (farmstead) that retains the essence of the original Patagonian estancias in the Argentine Patagonia. It is located within Los Glaciares National Park on the banks of the Southern Arm of Lago Argentino. Covering an area of almost 30,000 acres, it stretches as far as the border with Chile.

EcoCamp

Located within Torres del Paine National Park and sitting at the base of the Torres themselves, EcoCamp provides a unique lodging experience in this remote, southern part of the world. This sustainable accommodation, complete with green technology, is made up of various domes with charming interior designs and wood fired ovens. Wholesome, healthy meals are prepared each day by the on-site chef and vegetarian options are available too. An added bonus is the yoga dome which guests can use to stretch and relax after a day's adventure.

Luciano K Hotel

Luciano K is a small, boutique hotel located in the heart of the eclectic Lastarria neighborhood, known for its gastronomic scene and cultural activities and events. The hotel was originally designed by the architect Luciano Kulczewski in the 1920's and was not only the tallest building in Chile at that time, but was also the first building complete with an elevator and central heating. The glamour and elegance of the 1920's really shines through in Luciano's architecture and design. Additionally, the hotel has a bar, restaurant, heated swimming pool on top of a roof top terrace covering 300 meters; providing incredible views of the city.

Adventure Travel Today

At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!
