the important
stuff

We rate this trip as High Energy. Our High Energy trips are designed for women who enjoy a physical challenge and crave being on the go! You should be prepared for itineraries that include (but are not limited to): a full day of biking on rolling terrain, hiking 5-8 miles on moderate to steep trails, being active at high altitudes, whitewater rafting, or skiing.

how do I get there?

We recommend training before your trip (with your doctor's permission!) to make the most of your adventure. We have a partnership with FitForTrips, a company that will design an individualized fitness plan for you with this itinerary in mind. As you get ready to pack for your adventure, have a look at The AdventureWomen Store at www.theadventurewomenstore.com - we have picked out our favorite travel clothes and outdoor gear to help make packing easy for you. You can also see our recommendations for this trip on the AdventureWomen Pinterest page.

the important
stuff

IMPORTANT: You will be traveling in a 12-15 passenger van, and there is not a lot of room for luggage! It is imperative that you do not bring a large suitcase or duffel bag. Your duffel bag should be no larger than 30" x 14" x 14". It can have wheels. Your carry-on bag should be your daypack, which you will need to carry for most of your activities during the day time. It should be able to fit under the seats in the van (the size that would fit under an airline seat).

how do I get
there?

note: Zion Ponderosa Ranch is located in the mountains, and it is cold in the mornings and evenings. You'll want to dress in layers as the weather is unpredictable. We recommend bringing either an extra pair of hiking shoes or water shoes, as your shoes will get wet on Tuesday when you are in the Narrows in Zion.

pack your bags!

There are laundry facilities in your accommodations, but you may want to bring some detergent or you can purchase some in the gift shop.

Adventure Travel Today

At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!

DAY 2

Monday
10/1/18

Utah

Many experts claim that Utah's most scenic view is Observation Point at Zion National Park. This overlook stands you on the edge of a 2,200' precipice and offers a view across a major portion of the main canyon within Zion National Park, and far into the distance beyond the park boundaries. Zion National Park is 30 miles in length and 15 miles across at its widest point, and Observation Point, at an elevation of 6,521' is likely the best place to capture the grandeur of this vast expanse.

Hike to Observation Point

Most visitors to Observation Point in Zion endure a challenging four-mile climb and a 2,148 foot ascent from the Weeping Rock area in the bottom of the canyon, but there is a better way! From Zion Ponderosa Ranch, there is a park boundary trailhead that follows a more gentle rolling course across the Zion National Park plateau. This 3.5-mile one-way walk winds through the forest bending slightly northwest and then back to the southwest towards the overlook. About two miles in, you'll encounter views into a side canyon which are spectacular, but only whet the appetite for the view at Observation Point.

Lunch

Enjoy lunch back at the ranch.

Afternoon Horseback and ATV Rides

This afternoon, you'll have the option to go horseback riding or drive an ATV through the property at Zion Ponderosa. Stunning views and exciting adventure await you on the outskirts of Zion.

Dinner

Utah

Mother Nature is incredible. Over the last 200 million years or so, wind, rain and seismic shifts have conspired to create some of the most beautiful vistas, scenic stretches, and jaw-dropping formations this planet has ever seen. Zion National Park is no exception. A perfect storm of factors has turned what was once a simple basin into a picturesque spot — all part of the Colorado Plateaus — that draws tourists from all over the world.

Hiking Options

Drive to Zion National Park and choose from various hikes. These options, as well as other more moderate hikes will be discussed at your orientation. Take a boxed lunch with you on your hike!

Zion Narrows: The Narrows is one of the most strenuous hikes in Zion thanks to a preponderance of slippery surfaces, fast-moving water and the frequent need to wade against the current. It's also one of the most magnificent. There are hanging gardens and striking rock faces everywhere you look, but you'll need about 13 hours to hike it all. For this trip, we will hike up a mile on an asphalt trail to the opening of the Narrows. You can then choose to go up as much or as little as time allows in the water.

Angels Landing: Angels Landing is one of the most popular hiking trails in Zion, with some of the most stunning scenery you will ever see. Hikers come from all over the U.S. and abroad for the challenge of this thrilling trail, which can take from three to six hours to complete. From challenging switchbacks and drop-offs to a beautiful 360-degree view of Zion National Park from the summit, get to know the five sections of Angels Landing. This is an extremely strenuous hike, and should not be attempted by inexperienced hikers or those in poor health. Take this hike seriously. Bring water and snacks, and slow down when you need to.

DAY 5

Thursday
10/4/18

Utah

The major feature of Bryce Canyon National Park is Bryce Canyon, which despite its name, is not a canyon, but a collection of giant natural amphitheaters along the eastern side of the Paunsaugunt Plateau. Bryce is distinctive due to geological structures called hoodoos, formed by frost weathering and stream erosion of the river and lake bed sedimentary rocks. The red, orange, and white colors of the rocks provide spectacular views for park visitors.

Day in Bryce Canyon

Set out from the ranch with a boxed lunch for a day in Bryce Canyon National Park. Hike into the hoodoos via the Navajo Loop from Sunset Point. This beautiful trail gives you an up-close look at the National Park. Take some time to absorb your unique surroundings.

Enjoy the Ranch

After dinner take some time to relax in the hot tub.

DAY 6

Friday
10/5/18

Utah

Canyons that are ideal for canyoneering are often cut into the bedrock stone, forming narrow gorges with numerous drops, beautifully sculpted walls, and sometimes spectacular waterfalls. Most canyons are cut into limestone, sandstone, granite, or basalt, though other rock types are found. Canyons can be easy or difficult, though emphasis in the sport is usually on aesthetics and fun rather than pure difficulty. Canyoneering is enjoyed by people of all ages and skill levels.

Canyoneering Adventures

For those new to canyoneering, the National Park Service describes canyoneering as a combination of “route finding, rappelling, problem solving, swimming, and hiking.” Each canyoneering adventure experience is unique, and for many people it’s a once-in-a-lifetime experience. Once you’ve tried it you’ll want to do it again!

Zion National Park and the surrounding area is one of the premiere places in the country for canyoneering. Your expert guides will help you make the most of your guided canyoneering adventure. This guided canyoneering adventure is suitable for beginners and even more advanced levels, and every level of technical skill in between. For adventurers with no rappelling experience, your guides are trained to assist you and ensure your safety. Enjoy a boxed lunch on your way!
