The labyrinth of alleyways, small archways, and vibrant storefronts immerse you in the sights, sounds, and smells of daily life in this mountain town.

DAY 3
Monday
3/21/22

Chefchaouen

Chefchaouen was founded as a fortress in 1471 to fight Portuguese invasions of northern Morocco. Tucked away in the Rif Mountains, the “Blue Pearl” was closed off from the world for 500 years. Now it’s a vibrant, colorful Berber city that is uniquely blue. Some say the color wards off mosquitos; some say it’s of religious importance in both Jewish and Islamic cultures; and some believe it represents the importance of water. Whatever the reason, the result is stunning.

Walking in Chefchaouen

Enjoy a walking tour of the Medina in Chefchaouen, visiting the main sites of the city. Soak up the atmosphere of this town with so many mixed cultures, and witness the influence of the native Berbers, Muslims, and Jewish refugees from Spain. Visit a traditional workshop to learn about the Djellaba, the traditional long, loose-fitting outer robe worn in the area. Most djellabas have a hood that comes to a point in the back.

Lunch in a Local Home

Join a local family in their home for a traditional lunch. Learn about the family’s history, customs, and share some of your own history with your hosts!

Hike to a Viewpoint

Take a short hike up one of the hills surrounding Chefchaouen to get a panoramic view of this unique place.

Optional Afternoon Activities

After a day in the city, you might want to treat yourself with a Hammam or a massage at the hotel. The Hammams here are extremely traditional - it’s quite the cultural experience!

Chefchaouen to Fes

Enjoy a scenic drive across the Rif mountains to join the fertile Saiss plain. You will see a varied landscape as you drive south, including green forests, isolated villages, and olive groves. Arrive in Fes late this afternoon, the second largest city in Morocco and known as the Mecca of the West. This medina is the largest car-free urban area in the world. Also found in Fes is the oldest functioning madrasa in the world, Al-Qarawiyyin.

Depart Chefchaouen

Depart Chefchaouen and drive through the Moroccan countryside towards Fes.

Volubilis

Stop to explore Volubilis, an unexpected Roman site, which lies on a rich river valley with the dark Zerhoun mountain ridge as a backdrop. It was once a capital of a Roman province and the southern border of the Imperial road. Soak in the history of the area as you see some of the most preserved mosaics of the Roman era in Morocco.

Vineyard Visit

Stop in Meknes at one of the finest vineyards in the area. Tour the vineyard and enjoy tasting some Moroccan wines with your group - not many people can say they have tried wines in Morocco!

Fes

You will be transported back centuries while walking through the labyrinth that is the Fes Medina. Within the Medina all transport of goods is provided by donkeys, mules, and handcarts. In Fes you'll feel as if you were transported back in time as you wander the tiny streets.

Explore the Medina

From a small hill, take in the view of the city of Fes, one of the most preserved medieval Islamic cities in the world. Your expert native guide of Fes will accompany you to the old Medina, through the very narrow streets, to the souks and the tanneries. Explore the Karaouine Mosque, the Medersas, and the Nejjarine.

Tanneries and Pottery Cooperative

Visit a tannery and learn how local leatherwork is still created using ancient skills - make sure to ask about the materials they use; you might be surprised! You'll also have an opportunity to see the special blue ceramics made in Fes.

Lunch

Enjoy lunch at a traditional restaurant in the Medina.

Optional Cooking Class or Pottery Workshop

Adventure Travel Today

At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!

In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a
