DAY 4
Thursday
6/2/22

The Highlands

Crofting, a form of subsistence farming, was once spread far and wide across the Scottish Highlands but has now become more rare. This morning, you will visit a local croft that is being lovingly restored by two inspirational women. You'll walk around their land to see how they are using traditional methods to graze, fertilize and rotate their pastures.

Learn about Crofting

Today you'll hike a little over 6 miles in total as you explore the land of a local croft. This morning you will explore the land with two local women who will show you the traditional crofting methods they use to tend their pastures. You'll even have a chance to see their innovative hen mobile.

Lunch

You'll have a unique dining experience, as you enjoy lunch in a converted train carriage.

Walk through Lochan Uaine

Stretch your legs after lunch as you walk through the ancient pine forest to the Lochan Uaine, where legend has it, the fairies come down from the mountainside to wash their clothes.

Time at Leisure

Return to the hotel and enjoy the rest of the day on your own to explore.

DAY 5
Friday
6/3/22

Isle of Skye

You might call it a lake, but the Scots call it a loch – a free standing body of fresh water. You'll find over 31,000 of them, including their smaller cousin lochans, in Scotland.

Explore Loch Ness and Urquhart Castle

Say goodbye to Cairngorms National Park this morning, as you head out along the coast of Loch Ness. The first stop will be Urquhart Castle where you'll explore the most besieged castle in Scotland and enjoy the uninterrupted views of the loch.

Isle of Skye

After lunch at a local restaurant, you will cross the bridge to Skye and enjoy a leg stretch for about 4 miles to the ruins of the village of Keppoch, where 44 tenants were evicted during the Highland Clearances in 1852.

Check-in and Dinner

Later today, you'll arrive at the Uig hotel which will be your home for the next two nights. Check in and enjoy some down time before having dinner at the hotel.

DAY 6
Saturday
6/4/22

Isle of Skye

Watnish is the middle peninsula to the north of Skye, and it is named after the Old Norse word for water. This is a wonderful place to try to catch a glimpse of whales, dolphins, and sea birds off the dramatic sea cliffs at the shore.

Watnish Peninsula

After breakfast at the hotel, you'll start out on a full-day, eight-mile round trip journey to the Watnish peninsula. Starting at the ruins of an old church, you'll head towards a remote headland with spectacular views across the Minch to the Outer Hebrides beyond. Enjoy lunch while keeping your eyes out for sea birds, whales, and dolphins which may be visible just over the sea cliffs.

Return to the Hotel for Dinner

Return to the hotel along the same route while you hear the legends of the famous MacLeod clan, whose ancestral seat is at the nearby Dunvegan Castle. After returning to the hotel, take some time on your own before enjoying dinner in the hotel restaurant.

DAY 7
Sunday
6/5/22

Isle of Skye to Glencoe

The Old Man of Storr is a huge rocky pinnacle that rises out of the hillside, looking out towards the islands of Raasay and Rona. Legend has it that a giant lived on Trotternish Ridge, and his thumb - the Old Man - stayed above ground after he died and was laid to rest 2,300' above the Sound of Rasaay.

Hike to the Old Man of Storr

Set out this morning on a 3-mile hike to view one of the most iconic landmarks on the Isle of Skye: the Old Man of Storr. Depending on the route, you may be able to see other rock formations along the way. Enjoy a box lunch before returning to the van for this afternoon's drive.

Drive to Glencoe

You'll leave the island and cross the sea to the mainland as you experience a drive along one of the most scenic roads in Scotland en route to the mountainous town of Glencoe.

Check-in and Dinner

You'll arrive at the hotel late this afternoon, where you'll check in and have some time before enjoying dinner with your traveling companions in the hotel restaurant.

DAY 8
Monday
6/6/22

Glencoe

Glencoe is known for its soaring mountains, it's incredible scenery and it's brutal history. During the Jacobite uprisings in the 17th and 18th centuries, many battles were fought here but one of the most famous stories is that of the Glencoe Massacre, where 30 of the MacDonald clansman lost their lives in 1692. Today you'll hike to the viewpoint where legend has it, the signal was given to start the ambush.

Hike in Glencoe Enjoy your final hike of the trip, taking in the beautiful views while covering 1.5 miles.

Lunch After your hike, settle down in a local walkers inn where you will enjoy lunch with your fellow travelers before making your way back to the hotel in Edinburgh.

Farewell Dinner Celebrate your great Scotland hiking adventure with your fellow travelers during a farewell dinner at your hotel.

Adventure Travel Today

At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!

In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a
