During your adventure, you'll get to know your Icelandic guide, who will lead you as you ride across the countryside on Icelandic horses. She is also your AdventureWomen Ambassador, committed to helping make your experience a fun and personally rewarding adventure, and cheering you on as you reach beyond your comfort zone to take on new challenges in your own unique way!

Breakfast

On the way from the airport, take a quick detour to see the hot springs of Krýsuvík before enjoying a light breakfast at a cozy harbor café.

Explore Reykjavik

Head out on foot into Reykjavik and explore the city. You'll have the opportunity to taste several local delicacies during your tour.

DAY 2
Friday
6/24/22

West Iceland

Developed from ponies taken to Iceland by Norse settlers in the 9th and 10th centuries, the Icelandic horse is mentioned in literature and historical records throughout Icelandic history; the first reference to a named horse appears in the 12th century. Horses were venerated in Norse mythology, a custom brought to Iceland by the country's earliest settlers.

Visit the Snorrastofa Museum

Enjoy a visit to the Snorrastofa Museum where you will learn about Snorri Sturluson, a famous 13th century Icelandic historian, poet, and politician.

Today's Ride

Today's ride is about three hours, and over mostly even terrain. Have a picnic lunch somewhere along the trail. (Pack your bathing suit for later!)

Europe's Largest Natural Hot Spring

End the day by soaking in the Krauma Spa at Deildartunguhver, the largest natural hot spring in Europe. Drawing on the geothermal reserves of the area, it pumps out a staggering 180 liters of boiling water each second, and the billowing clouds of steam created by this mighty fissure are truly impressive.

Dinner at the SPA

Sit down for dinner right at the SPA restaurant after enjoying the hot tubs, steam baths, and an open-fire relaxation room.

DAY 3
Saturday
6/25/22

West Iceland

Stretching from soaring peaks on its eastern boundary to the ghost-haunted shores of the Atlantic in the west, Snæfellsjökull National Park is a microcosm of Iceland's bewitching geography. Its crowning glory, Snæfellsjökull Glacier, rises 4,800 feet above sea level; its underlying volcano has been dormant for nearly 1,800 years.

Today's Ride

Head back to the horses after breakfast for a ride with glacier views. With a little luck in weather you should be able to see the Langjökull and Eiríksjökull glaciers as well as a nearby icefield. Ride to Lambafoss, a beautiful waterfall in the river Lambá, where you will enjoy a picnic lunch. The ride will take about three hours.

Beer Tasting

After the ride, stop at a local microbrewery to learn about and taste Icelandic beer.

Waterfalls

Drive through an area famous for greenhouse horticulture. Stop to buy some fresh Icelandic products on the way to the charming Hraunfossar waterfalls. Enjoy a prosecco toast with your local snacks at the waterfalls before heading back to your hotel for the evening.

DAY 4
Sunday
6/26/22

Snæfellsjökull Peninsula

The tölt gait is known for its explosive acceleration and speed; it is also comfortable and ground-covering. There is considerable variation in style within the gait, and thus the tölt is variously compared to similar lateral gaits such as the rack of the Saddlebred, the largo of the Paso Fino, or the running walk of the Tennessee Walking Horse. Like all lateral ambling gaits, the footfall pattern is the same as the walk (left hind, left front, right hind, right front), but differs from the walk in that it can be performed at a range of speeds, from the speed of a typical fast walk up to the speed of a normal canter.

Breiðafjörður Bay Boat Trip

Board a boat for an unforgettable trip on Breiðafjörður Bay where you will cruise between countless islands populated by millions of birds. On the way back to shore, you will see fishermen returning with their catch of the day.

Lunch

Enjoy lunch on your own today at a local restaurant.

Explore the Peninsula

Head out for some sightseeing along the coastline of the Snæfellsnes Peninsula. Stop at Mt. Kikjufell, the most photographed mountain in Iceland, and walk along the beautiful black lava beaches of Djúpalónssandur. Measure your strength at Dritvík, where stones have traditionally been used to determine who is strongest and who is weakest; this determined who got sought-after assignments on fishing boats that set out into the rich fishing grounds around the Peninsula.

Afternoon Ride

Take a one to two hour introductory ride on the beach near the farm.

Check in to Your Lodge

Check in at your lodge, where you can enjoy the cozy lounge and the hot tub.

DAY 5
Monday
6/27/22

Snæfellsjökull Peninsula

Fall in love with Icelandic horses on this adventure. This iconic breed is best known for its comically shaggy coat and long mane, although experienced riders also praise it for its famously smooth gait, a fast but very smooth trot or “tölt”. Ride free as the Vikings once did, exploring the remarkable landscapes on your trusty horse.

Riding on the Beach

Enjoy breakfast at the lodge before setting out on your horse. Ride along the beach, over sparkling streams and rivers, and through the rough black lava fields of Búðarhraun. Today’s ride will be about five hours and 20 kilometers. The timing of your rides over the next few days depends on the tides.

Lunch

Stopping for a picnic lunch on the beach is a wonderful way to spend time appreciating the Icelandic landscapes surrounding you.

Dinner at the Lodge

Head back to your lodge for a well-deserved dinner. Take advantage of the hot tub to rest tired muscles.

DAY 6
Tuesday
6/28/22

Snæfellsjökull Peninsula

For centuries, the interior of Iceland was virtually inaccessible, for years at a time playing host only to outlaws in hiding. The highlands of Iceland are an untamed mingling of rocky deserts, jagged peaks, volcanoes, ice caps, valleys, and hot springs. Most of the numerous glaciers, such as Vatnajökull, Langjökull and Hofsjökull, are part of the Icelandic Highlands.

Another Day on Horseback

Head out again today for a five hour, 20 kilometer ride along the beach. You'll cover different ground each day, and each day will give you new views of the dramatic landscape. Much of your ride will have striking views of the Snæfellsjökull Glacier, made famous by Jules Verne.

Picnic Lunch

Enjoy another picnic lunch today.

Relax at Your Lodge

Relax at your lodge this evening. Kick up your feet and share stories with the women in your group.

DAY 7
Wednesday
6/29/22

Snæfellsjökull Peninsula

The Norsemen were pastoral people who relied heavily on a succession of successful farming years in order to survive. Norwegian settlers who inhabited the coasts of Iceland in the late ninth century brought their farming traditions with them. The settlers brought sheep, cattle, horses, and goats from Norway to supply their farms with animals.

One Last Ride Enjoy one last five hour ride along the stunning beaches of the Snæfellsnes Peninsula. Have a picnic lunch and spend time soaking in the remoteness of the area.

Farewell Dinner Have a farewell dinner with your new AdventureWomen friends. Reminisce over all of the memories you have made and celebrate the end of an amazing journey through this truly spectacular country.

Adventure Travel Today

At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!

In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a
