DAY 2
Tuesday
3/26/24

Tel Aviv and Jaffa

Located on the Mediterranean coast, Tel Aviv serves as the economic and technological center of the country. It's often called the White City due to the widespread presence of white colored, Bauhaus style homes and buildings. Thanks to them, the city is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Explore Jaffa

Set out on a walk through the city of Jaffa this morning. As you make your way through the Old Town square, consider the transformation of this city from ancient port to modern metropolis. Along the way, you'll learn about the city's ancient history from Greek mythology to becoming a major Christian site. Discuss the limits of "shared society" in a city that holds both majority Jewish and Arab neighborhoods and communities of asylum seekers and foreign workers. Wander through the quaint Neve Tzedek neighborhood, and onto tree-lined Rothschild Boulevard.

Lunch

Visit Na La'Gaat, a unique restaurant simulating the eating experience of those without sight, for a lunch experience in the dark.

Meet a Mizrahi Activist

After lunch, head south of the city to meet a Mizrahi activist whose women's collaborative advocates and organizes improved housing access and economic opportunities for people in less-resourced areas of the city.

Afternoon Options

Conclude your day with either a bike ride through the vibrant Yarkon Park north of the city or a paddle boat ride on the river which runs through the park.

DAY 3
Wednesday
3/27/24

Tel Aviv to Galilee

The Templar's Tunnel in Akko is an incredibly elaborate underground passageway that was built by the Knights Templar to connect their fortress, which is no longer standing, with the port. The tunnel, which extends over more than 500 feet, was built with natural stone and was accidentally discovered in 1994.

Survey Excavations

Check out of your hotel after breakfast and head up the coast to Caesarea where you will explore the world-class excavations from the Roman period while learning about the development of the maritime civilization from antiquity until today.

Lunch and Coffee with Local Women

Venture further up the coast to visit an authentic Ethiopian-style house built of mud and straw in a nearby kibbutz for a buna (coffee) ceremony and injara (lunch). Then meet the entrepreneurial women whose work brings the unique traditions of the Ethiopian Jewish culture to both local and international visitors.

Continue Exploring

In the afternoon, continue to the centuries-old Crusader Fortress of Akko. You'll walk the Templar's Tunnel and visit the Jazzar Mosque while appreciating the impressive preservation efforts and rich diversity of this unique coastal town. You will then complete the drive to Galilee where you will check into the hotel that will be your home for the next three nights. Later, enjoy dinner with the group.

Nazareth and Galilee

The first kibbutz, or collective community unique to Israel, was called Deganya and located just south of the Sea of Galilee. Today, there are over 270 kibbutzim with diverse specialization, ranging from agriculture to high-tech and military industries.

Visit Nazareth

After breakfast, set out to the Church of Annunciation, the site where Mary received the news of the Immaculate Conception. Then take a walk through the Old Town, stopping along the way to visit "Ghada's Corner," a local women-led group that champions the preservation of local culture. You'll then have time to enjoy lunch with the group.

Discussion with a Local Woman

Later this afternoon, continue on to the Kibbutz Hannaton where you will meet one of the leading female Jewish clergy members in the country. Spend some time hearing about the issues of religious pluralism and the rewards of communal living. Sip some wine from the community's Jezreel Valley winery before departing.

Mount of Beatitudes

DAY 5
Friday
3/29/24

The Golan

Golan Heights is an area of great historical and political significance as well as tremendous controversy and conflict. This land was once a part of Syria until Israel annexed the area as a result of the Six Day War. Without international recognition of the annexation, Syria has continued to demand that the land be returned to them. Despite talks between the two nations, Israel and Syria have not been able to reach an agreement on this land, and the conflict continues to this day.

Lunch in a Local Village

Visit the Circassian village of Rehaniya, home to one of the smallest minority communities in the country. Here, you will meet women in their homes and learn how the local production of cheese and honey have sustained their families for generations. Your time here will conclude with a delicious lunch as a group.

Explore Golan Heights

Travel into the Golan Heights and stop at Banais, a national reserve featuring remnants of Greek and Roman temples from ancient times that later became an important Christian site. Continue to the Mount Bental viewpoint where you'll learn about regional politics of both past and present. For those who are feeling adventurous, descend into the bunker tunnels on a ladder for a quick glimpse into the harsh reality of conflict.

Private Boat Ride

What better way to end the day than a private boat ride across the Sea of Galilee. Glide across the smooth, still waters as you cross this body of water on your way back to the hotel. You will enjoy dinner with the group back at the hotel after your return.

Morning Activities

Wake up early today and head to the Agamon Hula Nature Park for a tour of the grounds. You can choose to see the park on a mountain bike or cart ride across moderate terrain.

Galilee to Jerusalem

As a holy city for Judaism, Christianity and Islam, Jerusalem holds a huge place in the course of world history. The golden Dome of the Rock stands out as one of the most iconic of the city's 226 landmarks. The walled Old City became a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1981 - despite its small size, it contains a higher density of historical buildings, walls and sites than perhaps any other city in the world.

Travel along the Jordanian Border

You'll check out of the hotel after breakfast this morning and begin your journey south along the long and winding highway that follows the Jordanian border as you make your way to Jerusalem. Total travel time for today will be about four and a half hours, but will be broken up with many interesting stops along the way.

Visit Qasr al Yehud

Make a stop at the timeless Qasr al Yehud baptismal site where you will hear about the many challenges and innovative solutions relating to water management in the region. Then continue to Masada, where you will enjoy lunch and then take a cable car ride to Herod's mountaintop fortress. Explore the site excavations for this swath of land that was a refuge for Jewish rebels in 70 CE.

Take a Dip in the Dead Sea

After a bit more driving, you will head to a nearby Dead Sea beach for a quick dip in the waters that are at the lowest point in the world!

Arrive in Jerusalem

You'll arrive in Jerusalem late this afternoon. After checking into the hotel, you have the rest of the night on your own for dinner and some down time.

From the bustling underground Arab markets to the majestic Church of the Holy Sepulchre, the city is full of wonder.

Spend the Day in the Old City

Explore Jerusalem's Old City on foot today along with two guides - one Jewish Israeli and one Palestinian - who will share their perspectives in tandem. First, visit the Temple Mount/Noble Sanctuary complex which features sites rich in history as well as religious and political significance.

After taking time to approach the Western Wall, head to the City of David where you will tour the recent excavations and set out on an optional walk through underground Jerusalem and the water canal.

Enjoy lunch on your own before visiting the Church of Holy Sepulchre and walking the "Way of the Cross" to Saint Stephen's gate and the Pool of Bethesda.

Yad Vashem literally translates to “a monument and a name,” and is the second most popular site for Israeli visitors after Jerusalem’s Western Wall. Opened to the public in 1957, Yad Vashem has served as Israel’s official memorial for the victims of the Holocaust. It’s dedicated to preserving the memory of the dead, honoring Jews who fought their Nazi oppressors and honoring those who aided Jews in need.

Experience the Holocaust Museum

Spend the morning on a guided tour of Israel’s national holocaust museum and memorial, a sobering exhibition of an atrocity whose impact has touched generations of Jewish people in Israel and abroad. Take some time to reflect and consider the importance of preserving memory and promoting tolerance.

Adventure Travel Today

At AdventureWomen, we want everyone to understand that our excursions are adventure travel vacations and not "tours." We define "adventure travel" as travel in which one actively participates, as opposed to a "tour," in which one is more or less a passive observer. AdventureWomen designs and organizes vacations all over the world for women who want to experience an active, out of the ordinary vacation, and meet new friends. Most of all, we want our trips to be fun!

good-natured realist and have a sense of humor! Adventure vacations, by nature, require that participants be self-sufficient, flexible, and able to accept situations as they exist, and not just as they would have preferred or expected them to exist. The constraints of scheduled group traveling also necessitate that each of us be understanding of and sensitive to others. Being on time is important, and contributes to the congeniality, success and well-being of both individuals and the group!

In this spirit, the successful adventure traveler should be a
